MANAGERS' REPORT.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., November 1, 1890.

To His Excellency ALVIN P. HOVEY,
Governor of State:

At the close of another year in the history of the Reform School for Girls and Woman's Prison, we have the honor of submitting to your Excellency, and through you to the Legislature of the State, the Nineteenth Annual Report. The object of this Institution has been so often set forth in former reports, that we will refer only to those matters that are of general public interest and that have transpired during the past year, and we respectfully call your attention to the several reports and detailed statements hereto appended.

There have been no changes in the administration of affairs, the Board of Managers consisting of Mrs. Hendricks, Mrs. Walker and Miss Ream, as formerly noted. The monthly meetings of the Board have been regularly held, and special meetings when necessary, and the duties prescribed by law have been conscientiously performed.

The last Legislature made an appropriation of $6,000 for a brick wall on the eastern boundary of the Institution grounds. This wall has been well and solidly built, and has proved the protection and safeguard that we anticipated.

An appropriation of a like sum ($6,000) was also made for the erection of a hospital building. We quote from our last Report in saying, "That sum was found to be inadequate for the erection of a suitable, separate building, and after deliberation and consultation with our Advisory Board, we determined to add an upper story to the wings on the north side of the Institution building. By this plan suitable hospital accommodations were provided for the prisoners, entirely separate from those of the girls of the Reform School, and greater facilities were thus afforded for the management of both." These additions, we are gratified to be able to state, are commodious, well lighted and well ventilated, and are so arranged that if in the future the Institution should become overcrowded and it shall be thought best to erect a hospital separate from this building, these rooms can be used and are well fitted for the purposes of the Institution.

By the opening of Ohio street from Randolph street east, 126 feet of ground, lying just south of this Institution, was thrown open. This ground is owned by the State of Indiana. It has been enclosed with the property of this Institution and used for garden purposes. We respectfully request that said ground be formally set apart for the use of this Institution.

We have during the year just passed been able to make many needed improvements, notably among these were the changing of a dormitory into cells, a flue for the Reform School laundry, a window, two back porches, outside blinds, and a fence on the south line of the property. Several rooms and halls were repainted and revarnished and the wood-work of the outside of the house and the fence were repaired and painted. All this was much needed for the preservation of the building.

OFFICERS.

The Superintendent, Miss Keely; Assistant Superintendent, Mrs. Johnson; Secretary of the Board and Book-keeper, Miss Elder; and Physician, Miss Smith, have each been re-appointed to their several positions.

WOMAN'S PRISON.

There are in this department fifty-seven convicts and one infant. During the year twenty-three have been received, and upon the expiration of their terms twenty-four have been discharged. One was released by order of the Federal Court as having been sentenced illegally. This girl was arrested in the Indian Territory; she was tried and sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the Reform School, Washington, D. C. Upon her arrival there the officers in charge were surprised to learn that that Institution was for boys only. The Attorney-General then telegraphed to know if we would receive her. She was brought here and remained three months, and was then released and sent back to her home, upon the ground that the court trying her had no jurisdiction over the case. She was charged with having stolen a hatchet.

There have been no deaths in this department since August, 1887.

Of the twenty-three received during the year, twenty were white and three were black. One was a re-commitment; she is serving her third term; each sentence given was for larceny.

REFORM SCHOOL.

In this department there are one hundred and fifty-one girls. Forty-three have been received upon new commitments, and ten were returned from their tickets-of-leave, twenty-two were discharged, twenty-three were released on tickets-of-leave and one died.

The average age of the girls is twelve years. The total number received since the opening of the Institution is 818.

The school was opened on the 16th day of September, 1889, and held a continuous session, with the exception of Thanksgiving and Christmas days, until June 26, 1890. During the summer the girls were employed in the various industries of the Institution.

Every attention has been paid by the officers in charge to the moral and religious training of the inmates, with satisfactory results. While there is no defined system of grading, the inmates naturally classify themselves, and those most worthy of confidence are promoted to places of honor. There is a Guard of Honor in both the prison and reform school.

In addition to the regular Sunday services, religious meetings are held during the week, in which the women and girls participate.

As required by the statute, we have determined the "actual expenses per annum of clothing and subsisting an inmate committed to the Reform School," and have fixed the amount thereof at $140.

The collections made from counties by the Treasurer of State on account of this Institution during the past year, amounted to $10,071.27.

RECEIPTS.

We have received during the year, from the work of the inmates and other sources, the sum of $3,682. This amount has been turned into the State Treasury, quarterly. The receipts have accrued as follows:

For cane-seating		$236 11
For overalls, jackets and shirts		457 42

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZA C. HENDRICKS,

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

REFORM SCHOOL FOR GIRLS AND WOMAN'S PRISON,
SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE, October 31, 1890.

To the Board of Managers:

LADIES — With pleasure I submit to you the Nineteenth Annual Report of the REFORM SCHOOL FOR GIRLS AND WOMAN'S PRISON, believing that it will not only bear favorable comparison with all previous reports, but will show the most gratifying evidences of steady and marked improvement in the management and welfare of the Institution. In this result too much praise can not be given to our corps of officers for their faithful performance of duty and for the commendable zeal with which they have worked for the spiritual good of those committed to their care.

In the great work of reformation there are many important means to be considered. I may name steady, varied and competitive work, wholesome food and air, well ordered and regular pastime—for "all work and no play" makes a very dull girl—and educational, moral and religious training; but there has been no influence so potent for good as that of the intelligent, refined Christian officers in charge.

By reference to the list of officers and employes, it will be seen that four several changes have taken place in the last year, as follows: Miss Mary Hendricks, Reform School Matron, in the place of Mrs. Rachel Nesbit, granted leave of absence (without pay) on account of ill health; Miss Emma J. Hart, Supply Officer, in place of Mrs. Annie E. Gadd, resigned; Miss Iza Williamson, Laundry Teacher, in place of Mrs. Rachel McGrail, resigned; and Miss Luella Tinsley, Sewing Teacher, in place of Mrs. Alice B. Pearce, resigned. In all, nearly half the number of officers have been changed without causing a perceptible ripple in the routine of efficient service.

While dwelling on the management in general of the two entirely separate departments of the Woman's Prison and Reform School, it is proper to state that the only time the inmates meet in common is at the chapel services, Sunday afternoon. Even then, the boundary line is clearly drawn, as the prisoners occupy the back rows of benches and are the last of the congregation to come and the first to leave.

The religious services consist in chanting the Lord's Prayer, followed by a repetition of the Apostles' Creed, and singing the Te Deum. Prayer is then offered, and the anthem, "Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord," is chanted. A psalm is read in concert, the Superintendent leading, and there is another song of praise. The service is completed by a scriptural discourse or exhortation, under the direction of some one of the good men or religious organizations that have come to our aid every Sabbath of the year. We are especially indebted to Mr. Wilson Morrow, Mr. Charles Meigs, the ministers of the different city churches and to the Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of the Friends Church. We have also been favored with a number of other interesting and instructive addresses, among which may be named Miss Holliday's delightful description of missionary life in Persia.

As a preparation for these Sabbath services, and for the greater need of holy living, I must not omit to name the daily teachings of the Word and the devotional exercises, in which all the inmates take part. We can not hope that all are saved, but God's truth is ever before them, to enable them to resist evil and do the right. Every germ of truth and honor to be found in each heart, though it may be buried fathoms deep, is carefully nurtured and brought to light, to render the happy possessor self-respecting, self-supporting and a useful member of society.

The various holidays of the year, Thanksgiving, Christmas and the Fourth of July, have been appropriately celebrated. Flower Mission day, when representative members of that charitable society come with their offerings, is looked forward to with pleasure.

Exhibits a decided improvement in the character and habits of its inmates each year. A majority of its recruits are no better than the first two inmates, brought here seventeen years ago from the county jail to clear away the rubbish and prepare the building for occupancy; but it is impossible to over-estimate the reforming influence of the girls who have enjoyed the benefits of the Institution for any length of time. The most incorrigible are soon led to see the error of their ways and end by likewise setting an example worthy of imitation.

Every inducement is held out, by the management, to good conduct. The best girls are selected for Guards of Honor in each department, and are thus taught the virtues of care and responsibility. In rare instances do the girls prove unworthy of the trust. The hospital department furnishes the most valuable instruction and practice. Girls are here taught to dress wounds, much useful knowledge of diseases, and to nurse the sick and prepare their food. Many of the girls are practically qualified as trained nurses, and not a few have shown surgical skill.

Our school has never been better, and the attendance has been good and the scholarship above the average. It is the aim to confine the scholars within the strict limits of the statutory provision of "reading, writing and arithmetic," but a great deal of useful knowledge beyond these simple branches is grasped by eager, inquisitive minds. The best informed girls lend valuable aid to the school by teaching the younger girls. Altogether, three hours and a half of each day are spent in the school, and the same length of time at work; the remainder of the twenty-four hours is passed in play or sleep. The youngest girls do not spend more than an hour or two in school, and what work they perform is in the caning department, and is neither protracted nor laborious. The most liberal provisions are made for health and recreation.

By a recent statute girls are now under the control of the Institution until they attain the age of twenty-one years. A ticket-of-leave may be granted, however, when, in the judgment of the management, it is considered safe to place a girl in service or with her friends. In any case, the ticket-of-leave can only be given for one month, and can not be renewed without a favorable report of the girl has been received from employer or friends. An inexpensive but comfortable outfit is provided for each girl who leaves the Institution, either on ticket-of-leave or by reason of expiration of sentence.

While we can not reasonably expect to make the Reform School for Girls self-supporting, I am glad to report the following named proceeds of the laundry and caning departments of industry to the credit of the State, to-wit:

Laundry—patrons' pieces	29,520
Cash received for laundry work	$1,266 88
Cash received for caning	236 11
	$1,502 99

Taking into account the 87,166 pieces laundered for the Institution, the exhibit of work is very creditable to the girls of the Reform School.

The amount of general house and out-door work done by the girls can hardly be estimated. In short, it has been the constant endeavor to instruct the girls thoroughly in every line of house-keeping, not only to supply the needs of the Institution, but to fit them for the performance of useful and remunerative labor when employed elsewhere. It gives me pleasure to state that an unprecedented number of favorable reports have been received of the girls out on ticket-of-leave in the last year.

The following is a general statement of the number and status of the girls in the fiscal year now drawing to a close:

Girls on new commitment	43
Girls returned from ticket-of-leave	10
Girls discharged	22
Girls died	1
Girls released on ticket-of-leave	23
Girls present	151

The one death was caused by disease of the knee joint. The general health of the girls has been excellent.

WOMAN'S PRISON.

The following is a list and description of the inmates of the prison in the last year:

New prisoners	23
Discharged prisoners	24
Present number of prisoners	57

Our work in the prison is reformatory in all its details. In the words of the State Constitution, it is our aim to establish the penal code "on principles of reformation, and not of vindictive justice." It was in accordance with this spirit that the late Governor Conrad Baker, in his message to the General Assembly, January 8, 1869, recommended the passage of a bill providing for "a prison exclusively for women," "to be under the government of women." At the same time he advised the establishment of a "Reformatory for Girls," in the same building as the prison, likewise under the government of women, but entirely separate from the prison quarters. It is gratifying to recall the fact that his Excellency was stimulated to this important step by women. It was about that time that the Society of Friends appointed Sarah Smith and Rhoda Coffin to visit the prisons of our own and other countries, in order to devise a plan for ameliorating the condition of female prisoners. In our own State a very bad condition of such prisoners was found. So little was accomplished for their reformation that those Christian women felt constrained to call together a number of active friends of humanity to see what could be done.

The result was the recommendation of the Governor, as quoted, quickly followed by the passage of a bill, May 13, 1869, entitled, "THE FEMALE REFORMATORY," and to be under the control of the following "Board of Managers: Mrs. Emily A. Roache, Mrs. Rhoda M. Coffin and Mrs. Eliza Hendricks." Very properly, Mrs. Sarah Smith was elected Superintendent. Suitable grounds, near town, belonging to the State, were selected, and, with as little delay as possible, substantial buildings were erected thereon.

The penal department was opened October 8, 1873, by the admission of seventeen prisoners from the Jeffersonville State Prison. They were brought hither by that prison Warden, Chaplain and Matron.

Four hundred and forty-five prisoners, in all, have been received. The total number at present is fifty-seven, of whom eleven are for life.

The condition of the first criminals received was deplorable in the extreme. They were idle and vicious, and were considered unmanageable. It was surprising how quickly all this was changed. They laid aside tobacco and their coarse and vulgar habits. Their ruffles and tucks, morning wrappers and frizzes gave place to plain, neat dresses and simply arranged hair. The Police Gazette and accompanying evils gave place to the reading of the Bible and religious exercises. It must be owned that much of the work done was compulsory at first, but a gratifying change in the conduct of the prisoners was soon brought about by the refining and elevating reformatory measures adopted.

All the subsequent years in the history of this Institution, this quiet moulding of character has gone on with such beneficent results that we are encouraged to believe a majority of the women who have gone out from here are permanently reformed. We pity all the more the few who, with the best intentions of leading a new life, have fallen by the way. For are they not a set of moral cripples? Made so, often, by the force of vicious surroundings and temptation.

Along with the moral and religious training, we have endeavored to fortify our prisoners still further for the battle of life by informing them thoroughly in every line of needful domestic work. They are thus rendered self-supporting and independent of the vicious associates who are too apt to lie in wait for their release.

In addition to the customary household work, the prisoners have done more work in the garden than usual, the additional State ground enclosed being under cultivation.

The amount of work that has been done in the laundry is highly creditable. An average of sixteen women have been daily employed. The work enumerated is as follows:

Patrons' pieces	33,035
Institution	55,844

In addition to custom work, overalls, pants, shirts and drawers, many quilts, comforts and mattresses have been made for patrons in the general sewing room.

The family sewing room has also sent out beautiful work, from the making and repairing of dresses to the simplest and plainest garments worn. There has been less fancy work done than usual, the prisoners having been more profitably employed.

The amount of funds turned into the State Treasury on account of prison work is $1,361.88. The total receipts of the Prison and School turned into the State Treasury in the past year have been $3,682.

Chickens, ducks, guineas, pigs, cows and calves have been cared for by the inmates, and are in good condition.

PERMANENT IMPROVEMENTS AND REPAIRS.

Quite a number of permanent improvements have been made or completed in the past year. The brick wall on the east side of the Institution grounds and the hospital accommodations, provided for by an appropriation of the last Legislature, have been completed. The hospital has been furnished and occupied for several months. It is almost perfect in its arrangements, both as regards convenience and ventilation, and adds materially to the comfort of the Institution.

A large dormitory on the Prison side has been converted into cells, thus effectually separating the prisoners and proving a valuable aid to discipline.

A defective flue on the Reform School side has been replaced by a substantial double chimney, entirely fire-proof. The same kind of a chimney is needed on the Prison side.

One window with shutters and two airing porches have been added to the hospital portion of the building.

The entire tinning has been overhauled and repaired, but is so worn that it will have to be replaced by new in the course of a year or two.

All the inside wood-work of the main building has been re-varnished, and the walls have been painted. The outside wood-work of the entire building and stable, and the iron fences, which were in a very bad condition, have been repainted.

The drives about the grounds are also in bad condition and will need repairs within the next two years. There is always an incidental expenditure for repairs that can not be easily enumerated in advance.

It has thus been seen that in asking for a continuance of the legislative appropriation of $40,000 a year, it could properly come under the head of MAINTENANCE AND REPAIRS, as that sum is intended to cover the support of the Institution and the unavoidable wear and tear of the buildings and grounds.

CONCLUSION.

During the year we have had many trying hours, such as are incident to any work of a reformatory character, yet we have had strength and wisdom given us, when needed, and we know that God's blessing has rested on our labors, and that many lives have been redeemed from shame and sin.

And now, ladies, for your constant kindness and support—for your never-failing sympathy and help, both in sickness and in health—I can not thank you enough, but the dear Father, who notices even the sparrow's fall, will, I know, abundantly reward you.

With gratitude and praise to God for all our success, I most humbly submit to you this, my fifth annual report.

SARAH F. KEELY,
Superintendent.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., November 1, 1890.

To the Board of Managers of the Indiana Reform School for Girls and Woman's Prison:

LADIES—I respectfully submit the following report of the Hospital Department of the institution for the year ending October 31, 1890:

In the Prison Department no deaths have occurred, and there has been little acute illness. I have to report two cases of erysipelas, one of acute gastritis, two of dysentery, four of tonsilitis, and in the month of February six cases of la grippe. Also two cases of gastric ulcer, one of corneal ulcer, one of pelvic abscess, one of epilepsy, one of exopthalmic goitre, and one of mitral insufficiency. There were also several who required treatment for venereal and other constitutional diseases.

One birth occurred, a male child, white, born August 31, instrumental delivery. The mother was admitted January 21, 1890.

An operation for the removal of warty growth around the anus was done October 29.

In the Reformatory Department we had one case of bronchitis, two of acute cystites, eighty-six of la grippe and several of tonsilitis, diarrhœa and other minor troubles. There was also one case of inflammation of knee joint, due to a fall, and one of extensive scalding of the leg and foot, followed by erysipelas. Besides these, the usual number have required more or less treatment for chronic troubles.

There was one death in this department, due to disease of the knee-joint and pulmonary tuberculosis. Her death occurred December 15, 1889, at the City Hospital, where she had been taken a short time before because of our then insufficient hospital accommodations.

Health is at present good in the institution. The new hospital additions to both departments, which were opened for use in December, have added to the ease and efficieney with which the sick are cared for.

Consultants have been called when necessary. Thanks are specially due Dr. A. W. Brayton for assistance given at various times.

MARY SMITH,
Physician.

MANAGERS' REPORT.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., NOV. 1, 1891.

To His Excellency, IRA J. CHASE,
Governor of State:

In accordance with law, we herewith present to Your Excellency the Twentieth Annual Report of the Reform School for Girls and Woman's Prison, showing in full and complete detail the condition, progress and management of the Institution during the fiscal year ending October 31, 1891.

The personnel of the Board and officers remains, with one exception, the same as was reported to the Governor and the Legislature last year. The terms of office of two of the members expiring in March of this year, the Governor re appointed them, to serve each four succeeding years dating from March, 1891.

Miss Keely, the Superintendent, was taken seriously ill in the early part of the year, and was compelled, on this account, to leave the Institution. She was granted a six months' leave of absence, and upon the recovery of her health, returned to the duties of her position June 1st.

Mrs. E. L. Johnson, the Assistant Superintendent, was made acting Superintendent during Miss Keely's absence.

Dr. Mary Smith resigned her position as Physician in charge of the Institution on April 1st, to take a residence position in the Central Hospital for the Insane. Dr. Smith was a faithful officer, and served the Institution well, and it was with regret that we parted with her. Dr. Sarah Stockton was appointed to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Dr. Smith.

We have visited the Institution not only at the regular monthly meetings of the Board, but also individually, and as a Board, many times in addition to these stated meetings. At these visits we have thoroughly investigated the condition of the finances, the buildings, the internal management, and all matters pertaining to the Institution, and have made ourselves conversant and familiar with them and the inmates. We are gratified to be able to say that we have always found the food to be of the best quality, the clothing good and comfortable, the sanitary condition of the buildings and grounds excellent, the health of the inmates carefully looked after and wonderfully preserved, as but one death has occurred during the entire year, and the moral and spiritual training of the inmates has been earnestly and conscientiously directed.

The appropriation made by the last Legislature for this Institution has been judiciously expended; there has been no lavish outlay in any direction. The permanent improvements made were necessary, and have added to the advantage and beauty of the Institution. The Nicholson drives in the grounds were worn out and had to be replaced by gravel; cement walks to the gates were laid and the creek in the pasture was straightened and banked. These constitute the largest improvements made. A new safe and a new file-case have been added to the office furniture. Fire insurance to the amount of $5,500 on the building, $5,000 on the furniture, and $1,000 on the stable, was placed with reliable companies. The expenditures amounted to $39,980.30, this sum being a few dollars under the amount appropriated.

The cost of the Institution for provisions, salaries, clothing, fuel, light, general expenses, medical attention and discharge allowance has been for each inmate for the year $156.46, being per week $3.00.9, and per day 42.8.

The work carried on in the several industrial departments has been helpful toward the reformation of both the girls and the women. The receipts and earnings from these industries amounted to $3,742.42; this, with the board of United States prisoners ($265.20), made a total of $4,007.62, which was, according to law, returned quarterly to the State treasury. This sum was $325.62 in excess of the receipts returned in 1889–90.

The estimate of "expense per annum of clothing and subsisting an inmate committed to the Reform School" is $140, the counties paying one half the same, according to section 6192,

R. S. 1881. The sum charged against the counties the present year amounted to $10,697.57, which was reported to the State Treasurer. This, with $4,007.62, the amount of receipts and earnings, gives us a credit of $14,705.19.

The accompanying reports of our very efficient Superintendent, Secretary and Physician give in detail and fully explain the workings of the Institution. If the brevity of our report should suggest a lack of detail, we desire, as a board of women, to invite the personal inspection of our Institution by Your Excellency and the tax-paying public, to whom we are indebted for its generous establishment, maintenance and results. We trust it is not necessary to add that in all our proceedings we have been actuated by the highest sense of our responsibility to the State and to the well-being of the charges committed to our care.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZA C. HENDRICKS,
CLAIRE A. WALKER,
LAURA REAM.

MARGARETTA S. ELDER, Secretary.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

REFORM SCHOOL FOR GIRLS AND WOMAN'S PRISON,
SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE, October 31, 1891.

To the Board of Managers:

LADIES—The following annual report is respectfully submitted by the Superintendent for the fiscal year closing October 31, 1891.

The past year has been one of unusual activity, as well as one of increased care for all. Changes forced themselves upon us, affecting us in many ways.

Notwithstanding the many peculiar trials and discouragements, the work of the Institution, in the different departments, has been steadily and uninterruptedly maintained.

On account of ill health I was prevented from active service for seven months of the year, during which time Mrs. E. L. Johnson, the Assistant Superintendent, carried on the work, assisted by a valuable corps of officers, as well as your own careful supervision.

We have just passed our twentieth anniversary. During these years over eight-hundred young girls have been gathered from the streets, county-houses and bad homes, and have here found a refuge, with every chance to build up true characters. Many of these girls could neither read or write. Some had never seen a Bible; the greater number had been allowed to grow up without moral restraint, wild and ungovernable from childhood.

We deal with a set of moral cripples, many made so by inherited evils, others by the force of surrounding circumstances, and some by both combined. By giving them better environments we hope to so change the current of their lives that they will become good girls and women. We find that reform moves slowly—it is much easier to prevent than to cure—to save from than to restore.

Owing to the construction of our building we have never been able to grade or separate the inmates as we have felt the most successful work demanded. During the last six months we have succeeded in accomplishing a more satisfactory division of girls, especially during recreation hours, and we feel very hopeful of better results in the future.

One of the questions most frequently asked by those visiting us for information is: "what per cent. of reformation do you claim?" What a hard question to answer. The discipline of a few months can not be expected to work a radical change in any human being. To undo the work of years as well as the results of inherited evils requires much time and patience. "As the twig is bent the tree's inclined," is an old adage that holds good even in human lives. After a few months of weary toil we do eagerly look for the sprouting of the seed, very often to find it cold and dead upon the surface of a strong heart, but we see no unusual cause for discouragement at this time.

While some do very bad, others do very good, and some exceedingly well, rejoicing in a new life with its fond hopes of a brighter beyond.

In order to break up unprofitable conversation we have endeavored to keep the mind employed with pleasant and new things. An additional number of lights have been put in play rooms, a greater number of books and variety of games have been given them, and every effort has been made to make the hours of recreation bright and cheery. The change has been most wonderful in its effect upon the inmates.

A DOUBLE INSTITUTION.

We still have two departments, or rather two institutions under the same superintendency and management. The Reform School for Girls and Woman's Prison.

Twenty years of successful work have certainly proved that women are entirely adequate to the control and management of women, wild and unruly girls, as well as refractory and insolent women become subdued when brought under these reformatory influences and are reduced to obedience as successfully as if they were under the control of men, and we believe with better results to the character of those under discipline.

A large majority of inmates have been habitually orderly and industrious. It is only the few in either department who require special control.

The reformatory measures heretofore used have been kept up with satisfactory results. Plenty of fresh air, good wholesome food, clean clothing and comfortable beds with the best educational and refining influences about them, will certainly leave some impress upon the hardest heart, and help to subdue the strongest wills. The power of kindness is great, we prove daily that "A soft answer turneth away wrath."

The health of the Institution has been wonderful, with sickness and death all around us; but one has died and she a prisoner who entered with the germs of typhoid fever in her system. We have had some sickness, some stubborn cases, many chronic cases. All inmates come to us more or less broken down in health, caused by irregular habits and bad lives, but most of these soon yield to the measures used for relief, and all go out into the world again in better physical condition than when they came in.

The report of the physician will give you the sanitary condition of the building. I would also refer you to the different exhibits, statements and tables of the Secretary, showing the financial condition of the Institution as well as the receipts and disbursements for the year.

INDUSTRIES.

We have added no new industry; but have continued all that we were engaged in with our usual success.

It is not our aim to add to the treasury of the State so much as to teach others how to maintain themselves by honest labor after they leave the Institution. Our industries still consist of laundry-work, overalls, pants, shirts, jumpers, general sewing of all kinds, the making of mattresses and comforts, the quilting of quilts, knitting of capes, yokes, lace of all kinds, mittens and socks, as well as caning of chairs. The making of dresses, repairing of cloaks, etc., etc., in fact almost everything that woman's fingers ever do, can be done here. The dress making department has been enlarged. One woman will go out in a few weeks to open such a department for herself.

Quite a number of girls have supported themselves by working in the chair factories.

In the Reform School caning department 2,285 chairs have been caned for the Central Chair Company, 816 for the Indianapolis Chair Company, and 12 for private individuals, making a total of 3,313. This work is mostly done by the younger girls, who work only during the morning hours. For this work $318.71 has been received and sent to the Treasury of the State.

In the Reform School laundry there has been laundried for city patrons 31,644 pieces; for the house, including the work of nine officers, 92,115; total number pieces, 123,759; cash received for city work and paid into State Treasury, $1,129.50.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Our girls must go to school half of each day. Some of them delight in this privilege and learn fast; others dread the half day thus spent, and would rather work. Special attention is given to the elementary branches, also to United States history and human physiology. Oral lessons are given in English grammar. Composition and map drawing also receive considerable attention. A set of wall maps has been purchased, also the complete school charts of Ivison, Blakeman & Co., embracing reading, phonics, penmanship, drawing, arithmetic, United States history, geography, civil government and physiology.

The younger girls are taught in a separate school room, and at all times are kept apart from the older girls.

Each girl is permitted and urged to write home to her friends once a month, and is allowed letters from home at any time.

No promiscuous letter-writing is permitted.

TICKET-OF-LEAVE.

No change has been made in our ticket-of-leave system. We still find it very much better to have the "ticket-of-leave" returned once a month with a report of conduct. If this report is good an extension of time is given; if not good, it is withdrawn and the owner returned to the Institution.

During the year we have sent out for trial twenty girls. Several were only out for a few days, as an accommodation to some friend or neighbor. Others, out for a longer time, were found to be inefficient and were returned. Others could not stand the temptations of the outside world, and soon came back for bad conduct, while quite a majority are doing well.

We have received into the Reform School during the year 42 new girls; have had returned from tickets-of-leave given in former years 17; had remaining October 31, 1891, 143.

Two girls were transferred to the "Home for Feeble-Minded" on the 31st of January.

The holidays have come and gone, with their usual recreations and change of food.

On "Flower Mission Day" some beautiful flowers were sent us by the W. C. T. Unions of Greencastle and Martinsville. This day is looked forward to with pleasure by both old and young.

The usual Sunday services have been held: Band meetings at 9:30 A. M., Sabbath School classes at 11 A. M., and preaching in the chapel at 3 P. M. by some minister from the city.

We are not sectarian. Ministers of all denominations gladly assist us. Services are often held with us by laymen during the week after the hours for business are over. Eternity alone will reveal the good that has been done in these evening services by the faithful men and women who have come out through the heat and the cold to help us. Our daily devotional exercises have never been omitted. We begin and close each day with prayer.

THE WOMAN'S PRISON.

This department is still entirely separate from the Reform School, although the public mind may not be able to see the distinction. Our penal department is in most excellent condition: we do not believe it could be much improved under existing circumstances.

We can not grade as we would like on account of the construction of the building. Neither can we separate the good from the bad as effectually as we desire, but with all these hindrances we are in a quiet, peaceable condition, showing that the opportunities here afforded for improvement are not entirely lost.

The daily record of very many has been good; some few excellent, while some have been wayward and willful and have needed discipline.

Separation from the family is the usual method of punishment.

Our overall work has been done for R. G. Harseim, of this city; 12,765 pairs of overalls, 4,260 jumpers and 414 shirts have been made for this firm, for which we have received and paid into State Treasury $488.66. For amount of work done in general sewing department see Secretary's report.

LAUNDRY DEPARTMENT (PENAL).

There has been laundried for city patrons 34,849 pieces; for the house, including work of six officers, guest chambers and officers' dining room, 43,571 pieces; total number pieces laundried, 78,420.

Cash received for city work and paid into State Treasury, $1,481.44.

Notwithstanding our poor ground and the dry weather our garden (made entirely by two of the prisoners) yielded a good supply of fresh vegetables, the entire household sharing in whatever was raised.

The flowers were also cared for by the women.

Daily tasks are generally looked upon as blessings here, and each one seems proud to learn some new kind of work.

One death occurred in the Prison, Mattie Drake, who was received Nov. 7, 1890, and died Feb. 28, 1891, of pulmonary tuberculosis, following typhoid fever contracted before entering the Institution.

One child has been born six months after the mother was committed.

We have received during the year 31 women; 2 were recommitments; had remaining at the close of last year, 57; total for the year, 88.

Discharged upon expiration of sentence, 31; discharged by pardon, 2; discharged by death, 1; released on habeas corpus proceedings, 1; had remaining Oct. 31, 1891, 53.

IMPROVEMENTS.

Besides the usual repairs that must be kept up each year, quite a number of permanent improvements have been made. A wooden partition on first floor between the older girls' reading-room and a school-room has been replaced by a solid plastered partition. A new book-case has been built in the older girls' reading-room, and a reading-room has been fitted up on the second floor for the girls of the second grade; also, a school-room for the girls of the first grade on the same floor. Nearly two hundred new books have been added to the library; also, additional copies of "St. Nicholas" and "Youths' Companion," "S. S. Advocate and Classmate."

A new pigeon hole file case has been built in the Superintendent's office by Sander & Recker. A new safe has been placed in same office by Mosler Safe and Lock Co., of Hamilton, Ohio. The refrigerator and fruit closet has also been rebuilt.

The drives about the ground have been put in repair, and a cement stone walk has been built from both gates leading to the building.

The boilers have been thoroughly renovated, flues rebuilt, and a Simmons furnace put in, regulating the use of either gas or coal, or both combined.

Four good cows were purchased in the spring, also a number of shoats. The surry has been repainted, and put in perfect order.

The water tanks on the second and third floors of the Reform School have been replaced by new ones, and larger side gas burners put in the chapel over the platform, which has been greatly enlarged.

A large organ has also been purchased.

The two north chimneys have been rebuilt from the roof.

The branch running through the pasture has been straightened and banked, and flood gates put in order.

Additional bars have been put in all hospital windows, and several new floors made in other parts of house.

Iron doors have been put in prison rooms on probation hall, and one at door leading in back court from main hall in school building.

Altogether, this has been a very busy, and, we believe, prosperous year. Everything is in good condition. The discipline never was better. We are often discouraged, but find much for which to be thankful. We believe the efforts made to litt up into a better womanhood the erring ones of our own sex have not been in vain.

"We have tried to be strong in the doing,
For that is ours alone,
The meaning and end are God's
And He will care for His own;
And if to us it seems little,
We remember that from afar
He looks into a world
Where we see only a star."

For your kindly forbearance, as well as faithful counsel, for your constant support and unceasing help, I would sincerely thank you, and to the ever-loving, all-wise Father of all, I would commit this Institution, with all its far-reaching interests and grand possibilities, and to Him be all the honor and glory for any good we may have done.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH F. KEELY,
Superintendent.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 1, 1892.

LADIES—I herewith submit the report of the Hospital Department of the Institution for the year ending Oct. 31, 1891.

In the Prison Department there has been but few cases of serious illness. One death occurred, resulting from phthisis pulmonalis preceded by an attack of typhoid fever. Patient died Feb. 20, 1891.

Requiring attention, was one case of chronic gastric ulcer; one of diabetes; one of bronchitis; one of exophthalmic goiter; one of inflammatory rheumatism; two cases of dysentery; two of epilepsy; one of pemphigus vulgaris, originating in herpes-zoster. Of temporary illness, there were a number of cases of diarrhœa, and slight attacks of tonsilitis. Several have received treatment for various uterine and pelvic derangements, and venereal disease, from which they were suffering when admitted. There was one birth—an illegitimate male child, white, born Oct. 3, 1891; mother admitted April 30, 1891. Forty-two have been in the Hospital during the year.

In the Reformatory Department there were two cases of dysentery; two of hemorrhage of the lungs—one of them also afflicted with corea.

During November there were twenty-four cases of tonsilitis and forty-four during the year. There were a number of cases of diarrhœa and one of bronchitis. Several have suffered from abscesses on different portions of their bodies. One girl when admitted had an ulcer of two years' duration on the anterior surface of her left leg, midway between the knee and ankle.

There were a number of cases of gastric and intestinal catarrh; one case of herpeszoster and a few cases of venereal disease, existing when they were received as inmates of the Institution. Ninety-one have been in the Hospital during the year. No deaths occurred in this department.

At the present time, the health of the Institution is good. The excellent sanitary condition of the building, the generous supply of good food and clothing, and the faithful and efficient service rendered in nursing and caring for the sick, have conduced largely to the good health that has prevailed.

Respectfully,

SARAH STOCKTON,
Physician.

MANAGER'S REPORT.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., November 1, 1892.

To His Excellency, IRA J. CHASE, Governor of State:

The Board of Managers of the Reform School for Girls and Woman's Prison have the honor to submit to Your Excellency the Twenty-First Report of the Institution, together with the annual reports of the Superintendent, Physician and the Book-keeper. These reports, exhibits and tables give the financial, sanitary and moral condition of the Institution for the past year in complete detail. They have received our commendation and endorsement and as a statement here of the information given in those reports would be a mere recapitulation, we will ask your careful consideration of them and will refer only to those matters of importance that have come under our immediate supervision.

There has been no change on the Board since the last report. The unusual occurrences of the year have necessitated many visits in addition to the stated meetings.

The Superintendent, Sarah F. Keely; Assistant Superintendent, Elmina L. Johnson; Physician, Sarah Stockton, and Secretary of the Board and book-keeper, Margaretta S. Elder, have each been reappointed to their several positions.

The cost of the Institution for provisions, salaries, clothing, light, general expenses, medical attention and discharge allowance, has been for each inmate for the year $164.82, being $3.17 per week, and 45.2 cents per day.

The estimate of expense per annum of clothing and subsisting an inmate committed to the Reform School for Girls remains at $140, the counties paying one-half the amount, according to Sec. 6192, R. S. 1881. The sum reported to the Treasurer of State being $9,738.08.

The earnings and receipts turned into the State Treasury quarterly have amounted to $2,573.37. Thus we have a credit of $12,311.45.

On the evening of March 1, the building was set on fire by one of the girls, and burned to such an extent that it was injured beyond occupancy. The fire was started in the stove-room of the laundry on the Reform School side; it destroyed the laundry, the hospital above it, and the entire Mansard-roof over both sides, including dormitories and chapel. Fortunately, no loss of life occurred. The Superintendent, in her report, gives the details of this fire. (See page 12-15.)

As stated in our Report of 1890–91, we had placed insurance on the buildings and furniture with reliable companies to the amount of $51,000. Immediately after the fire, a committee of appraisers was appointed, consisting of Samuel R. White, of Bloomington, Ill., on the part of the insurance companies, and Harry Watts, of Knightstown, on the part of the State, to consider the loss on the building, and W. H. Messenger for the State, and J. R. Marott for the companies, both of Indianapolis, for the loss on furniture. These gentlemen made careful observations, and exact calculations and estimates of all items necessary for reconstructing and refurnishing; and determined the loss to be $14,301.42 on the building, and $3,000 on the furniture, a total of $17,301.42. The insurance companies placed checks for this amount in our hands, and these were at once deposited in Fletcher's Bank.

Only one course seemed open to us, that of using this insurance money in rebuilding, immediately. The prisoners and girls were crowded into the Marion County Work-house, the only place at all available or commodious enough to accommodate them, and which the Commissioners, the morning after the fire, had kindly placed at our disposal temporarily.

There was no authority other than our great need, in using this money in rebuilding; such action was probably outside the authority of the law, but necessity demanded it, and "necessity has no law." The Board was called together in your office on the morning of April 1, to confer with the officers of State, our advisory board, upon this matter. At the close of this conference, a written opinion was handed us, signed by Your Excellency, Claude Matthews, Secretary of State, J. O. Henderson, Auditor, and A. G. Smith, Attorney-General, stating that "It is our opinion that you can properly use the money realized out of the insurance on the building recently injured by fire."

Armed with this, with a sense of moral authority and the consciousness of the sanction of public opinion, the work of rebuilding was pushed rapidly forward. We considered it imperative at this time to improve upon the original building, in doing away with the Mansard-roof, which had proved such a perfect flue in carrying the fire and flames; in extending the fire-walls from the second-story to the roof, thus giving needed fire protection on the third-floor; in building an additional story over the hospital, utilizing that roof and also supplying necessary additional room, and in making all the new floors fire-proof. (See Superintendent's Report.)

In making these extended improvements we have unavoidably exceeded the amount of the insurance money. Part of this extra expenditure has been met from our maintenance and repair fund, and part of it still remains unpaid. (See table appended hereto.) This has necessitated straightened means, and has required the most rigid economy and great anxiety of mind on the part of the management in meeting our regular expenses. But, had we not acted as we did, and promptly, the ruins would have remained as left by the fire, and the loss to the building and contents from exposure to the weather would have far exceeded the outlay made, and the inmates would still have been scattered and poorly cared for. We feel that our action was for the best interests of the State and Institution, and we respectfully ask such legislation as will legalize it, and also appropriate a sum sufficient to cover our indebtedness.

A second attempt was made to destroy the Institution by fire on the evening of July 17. The damage to the building was slight, but the "scare" in the insurance companies was immense, and in consequence of this "great risk," "not known," "not realized before," as they expressed it, a number of the companies withdrew, and ordered their policies cancelled. A readjustment was finally effected, however, and a rebate of charges of $392.61 was made to us. This sum we have also used in payment of reconstruction bills. (See table.)

As a result of all this incendiarism and consequent troubles, great annoyances were experienced from vicious and unprincipled persons on the outside, and for protection from these it was deemed wise by a majority of the Board to lock up the north gates permanently, and locate a watchman at the south gate. Accordingly, a lodge costing $917.50, with a one-hundred-and-fifty-foot driven well, costing $121.50, was built, and a watchman is now stationed at this gate.

In conclusion we would say that the Institution is now in smoothly running condition, and under a high order of system and discipline, and affairs are carefully and humanely conducted. Respectfully submitted,

ELIZA C. HENDRICKS,
CLAIRE A. WALKER,
LAURA REAM,
Managers.

MARGARETTA S. ELDER, Secretary.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

Reform School for Girls and Woman's Prison,
October 31, 1892.

To the Board of Managers:

Ladies—The year just closing has been a very eventful one, perhaps more so than any other in the history of the Institution, and yet through it all God has been very good and merciful to us.

On the evening of the 1st of March, a burning iron holder was thrown by a girl in the Reform School into a closet under a stairway, setting fire to the laundry. In a short time the fire was extinguished by two of the employes; but in some mysterious way it broke out again in one of the ventilators of the hospital, which is over the laundry, and as there was a strong north-west wind blowing at the time, the flames soon communicated with other ventilators and was then easily carried to the Mansard-roof.

The fire department, which was called as soon as danger threatened, was greatly hindered by impassible streets and thus the fire gained a headway which soon destroyed the upper story and entire roof with the exception of the prison hospital and administration building.

The Reform School hospital and laundry were a complete wreck, and the entire building was rendered for the time unfit for use.

The Deaf and Dumb Institute, many kind neighbors, the Police Station and Criminal Court Room, as well as the Home for Friendless Women, opened their doors to receive our unfortunate inmates, while the City Hospital and St. Vincent's Infirmary took care of our sick.

Although all of the prisoners as well as girls were let out of the burning building and left among the crowds that soon gathered about the ground, not a prisoner escaped and only five girls left for parts unknown.

The next morning through the assistance of Mr. W. B. Roberts, Governor Chase's Private Secretary, the Marion County Work House was secured from the County Commissioners for temporary quarters for our scattered family, and by 6 o'clock the same evening the male prisoners had been transferred to the county jail and our forty-seven female prisoners were safely housed in the woman's department of the Work House, while the Reform School girls, 122 in number, occupied the cell house for men. The cooking department was transferred to the willing and able hands of some of our women, under the direction of a corps of officers, while the girls were arranged as nearly as possible in their usual grades and assigned to separate quarters in the cell-house under the management of another corps of officers. A sewing room was soon established in the center of the cell-house, on the sunny side, and the busy hum of the sewing machines told very plainly that the burnt clothing of the girls was soon to be replaced by other just as good and warm.

A school for oral instruction was gathered in the northwest corner and many lessons were learned just as profitable and important as in the old school room with books and slates about them. The scrubbing brush and mop were not even laid aside, but were kept plying here and there until our new quarters began to take on quite a home look.

The work of putting the old home in repair began at once. The insurance companies were very prompt in making their payments. Our plans for rebuilding were soon made and contracts given out, and in a very few days the rubbish was being hauled away and the saw and hammer was heard in our midst. At your request I remained at the Institution to gather up the fragments and look after the repairs, while my assistant, Mrs. E. L. Johnson, took charge of the family at the Work-house. Three officers and thirteen women remained with me, the prisoners occupying at night the prison hospital, which escaped the fire, while the other officers assisted Mrs. Johnson at the Work-house.

Our officers and employes were faithful in the performance of many unpleasant tasks. We all took up the additional burdens that had so suddenly fallen upon us as cheerfully as possible, and soon felt in the midst of our many hardships that it might have been worse.

Competent workmen and good weather so favored us that we were able to return the family to the Institution by the 6th of May, although the work of rebuilding was not completed before the last of June.

Two of the five girls who escaped during the excitement of the fire have been granted tickets-of-leave and have since married; another was so soon of age that no effort was made to have her returned, while the other two were secured in a short time.

On account of severe illness and much needed rest, Mrs. E. L. Johnson was granted leave of absence from July 1 to November 1, Miss S. Pray, hospital officer, and Mrs. A. Broadrup, supply, acting as first and second assistants, in addition to their other duties during her absence.

Miss Emma Hart, Miss Mary Hendricks and Miss Forsythe resigned during the year, and Mrs. Fannie Hiteshue, Mrs. Broadrup and Miss Wadsworth were secured to fill the vacancies thus made. Miss Rosa Norisey, of Vevay, and Miss Della Ryder, of Indianapolis, were also added to our force during the summer.

On the 17th of July, after a very quiet Sabbath day, the building was again set on fire by three Reform School girls, and this time in four different places, but it was extinguished by the use of chemicals and the appliances for fire protection in the house. The loss entailed by this fire was not over $100.

As we felt confident aid and encouragement had been given to the girls by persons from the outside (matches, pencils and notes having been found in the yard), it was thought best to build a lodge at the south gate as in the original plan, closing up the north gate, and employing a watchman to have charge of the entrance to the grounds, as in similar institutions.

In repairing and rebuilding great care has been taken to separate more completely these two distinct institutions by additional walls and closed passage ways between the departments. There is no intercourse permitted between the criminals and reform girls, and at no time are they ever in the same room, with the exception of chapel service, on Sunday afternoon, when the prisoners go up by a private stairway, and are seated in the back part of the chapel, after the service begins, and are taken out during the singing of the last hymn. I would not advocate putting two such institutions together, under the same roof or in the same inclosure; but under existing circumstances I believe the separation is as complete as we can make it.

We have four grades in the Reform School, and although we can not separate by cottages, we do manage to keep the children and younger girls separate from the older girls in school, work and play.

During the second fire, of July 17, three girls escaped, but were returned after a few days.

The conduct of the girls has been improving ever since this last adventure. A better spirit prevails among them than for nearly three years. They are more easily controlled, and we are hoping for better results. An increased number of officers has been a great help in this work of reform. Better work is being done because one officer has not so much to see to.

The four girls who caused so much trouble and destruction of property by their willfulness have been transferred to the Woman's Prison by order of the Court, two to serve five years each, and two ten years each, and to be kept separate from the others as much as possible.

INDUSTRIES.

On account of the additional work in the house, the refurnishing of almost all our bedding and clothing, as well as the complete destruction of the Reform School laundry, we were not able to resume work for city customers before the last of June, consequently our receipts for the year have not been as large as in other years, although a great deal more work has been done.

Our girls are carefully taught in every thing that goes toward making or keeping a home. Practical instructions are daily given in all branches of house work, cooking, laundry work, sewing, mending, darning, in fact, every branch is taught them that will qualify them to earn an honest living when they go out again into the world. The primary object of the maintenance of these various industries has always been to teach our girls; the results have been a clean house to live in, well prepared food to eat, nice-fitting clothes to wear, besides the conscious pride in knowing how to do things well.

The daily life of the school is made up of exercises designed and fitted to promote the physical, industrial, intellectual, moral and spiritual education of the girls.

The caning department for the younger girls is one of our prettiest industries, although it is not a source of great revenue to the State. With the weaving of the cane into seats of perfection and beauty many beautiful lessons are woven into the children's lives, and seeds of truth are daily dropped into their young hearts which may lead to as useful results in after life as the chair seats their fingers so busily weave.

During eight months of the year 1,844 seats were caned for the Central Chair Co., for which $137.16 has been received and paid into the State Treasury; for private patrons eighteen have been caned and $12.45 received.

The Reform School laundry has laundried for city patrons 9,864 pieces, for which $535.10 has been received and paid into the State Treasury, beside replacing by work all the losses by fire.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Although the school has been broken into twice during the year, it is now in very good condition and the girls seem greatly interested in their studies. Great care is taken with the letter-writing home, and more attention is given to State work than heretofore.

When the weather is unfit for outdoor recreation, an hour is given each evening for study.

Greater attention is also given to physical culture and the moments are so filled with work, study, reading and drills as to leave little time for unprofitable conversation, we are aiming to break this up entirely by giving to each moment something to do.

The primary school is entirely separate from that of the older girls, although many of the children are far in advance of the older girls. Much oral instruction is given in both schools as well as general lessons that will be helpfnl in everyday life.

LIBRARY.

Our library and reading-room received but little injury from either fire or water. The reading-room is always crowded with girls anxious for a good book. Quite a number of new volumes have been added to our list of books, and many magazines and pamphlets have been contributed. Several copies of "St. Nicholas," "Youth's Companion," "Christian Herald," "Christian Standard," Sunday-school papers, "Picture Lesson Papers" and Sunday-school journals are regularly received and eagerly read.

TICKET-OF-LEAVE.

Our ticket-of-leave system remains unchanged. No trouble is experienced in finding good homes for our girls. They always go out well clothed and with every encouragement to do well.

HEALTH.

The health of the girls has been remarkable. Two have died, one with hasty consumption, while out on ticket-of-leave, and the other of tonsilitis, while at the Work-house; with the exception of quite a number of cases of tonsilitis, while the family were staying at the Work-house, we have had but little sickness. One young colored girl was discharged during the spring because she was such a victim to scrofula that but little could be done for her in the way of reformation.

The usual Sabbath services were greatly interferred with during the spring months, as we had no regular place for preaching service.

The Sunday-schools and prayer-meetings were always held, and services of song beguiled many an otherwise weary hour. Although not entirely finished, we were able to have our chapel dedicated on Sunday the 24th of July. Governor Ira J. Chase, Dr. Jenckes, Mr. Wilson Morrow, Mrs. J. E. Gilbert, Mr. John Elder and Mr. Alex. Johnson, of the State Board of Charities, taking part in the exercises.

Since then the ministers and friends from the city churches, have preached or talked to us each Sunday afternoon, while the Sunday-schools, prayer-meetings and band meetings have been regularly conducted by the Superintendent and officers.

Other kind friends have held week night services, which have always been productive of good.

A King's Daughters Society has been organized among the girls, with five circles of ten each, "Always Tell the Truth" Circle; "Speak Kindly" Circle; "Look Out" Circle; "Happy Face" Circle and "Whatsoever" Circle. This has been a very happy movement in its effect upon the conduct of the girls.

The Y's of Martinsville, remembered us again on W. C. T. U. "Flower Mission Day," with some beautiful flowers, while many ladies from the city came out with gifts of flowers and cards. These days are highly appreciated by our family.

The holidays were all observed as usual. Christmas brought its gifts to all and to some of us its tears as well.

Columbus Day was observed by an all-day celebration in the chapel. Both the official and public school programs being used besides other selections. A flag drill by the children was very much enjoyed. The chapel was very prettily decorated and a large flag floated from the building.

We have received 48 new girls during the year. Have sent out on T. of L. 29. Have discharged, being of age, 20. Escaped, 1. Transferred to Woman's Prison for Arson, 4. Returned from T. of L., 9. Died, 2. Remaining, October 31, 144.

WOMAN'S PRISON.

We have received in the Prison 25 women. Have discharged upon expiration of sentence, 22. One has been pardoned. One paroled for surgical treatment at City Hospital. Remaining at end of year, October 31, 54.

PRISON INDUSTRIES.

We still make overalls, jumpers and shirts for R. G. Harseim of this city. We have received from this department and turned into the State Treasury $422.54. In the general sewing department, where garments of all kinds are made, we have received and paid into the State Treasury $171.84.

In the prison laundry department there have been laundried for city customers 32,043 pieces, for which $1,135.98 has been received, besides this 45,268 pieces have been laundried for the house.

Total amount of moneys from all sources in Woman's Prison, $1,730.36.

All the losses by fire have been paid for, as far as possible, by work both in the sewing and laundry departments, in the Reform School as well as in the Prison, for this reason our receipts fall short this year.

The conduct in the Prison, with very few exceptions, has been very good. We believe it would be hard to find a prison anywhere in which the conduct was so uniformly good as ours. It is only the few and they short-time women who are ever inclined to cause trouble.

HEALTH.

We have had no deaths and but little sickness. Several chronic cases required both skill and care, but as a general thing the health has been excellent.

One case, requiring surgical treatment just after the March fire was paroled by the Governor, that she might receive the needed care at the City Hospital, which we did not feel like asuming under the circumstances.

IMPROVEMENTS.

We have made a number of improvements this year, many of them caused by the great disaster that came to us the 1st of March.

In rebuilding we have used 39,000 (thirty-nine thousand) more brick than were in the building before. The hospital walls were carried up another story, giving us thirteen additional sleeping rooms, which were much needed. In the main building the partition walls were made of solid brick, and the two fire walls were carried up through the attic to the roof, thus making a safer and much more substantial building than we had before. Four new closets, two wash-rooms, and two new bath-rooms were also added. Our plumbing is of the very best. All these improvements were greatly needed.

To the many kind friends who remembered us by letters or words of confidence and sympathy during our days of trial we would extend our heartfelt thanks, and for the many pleasant remembrances that have come to us in various ways we are very grateful; especially to you as a Board, who have always responded to our faintest call, and stood faithfully by in hours of need to comfort, encourage or help; while to our Heavenly Father, for the almost miraculous preservation of life and health we do most humbly bow with gratitude and praise.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH F. KEELY,
Superintendent.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

LADIES—I respectfully submit the following report of the Hospital Department of the Institution for the year ending October 31, 1892.

I have made, during the year, three visits per week at stated periods and have responded to calls to the Institution whenever extra services were required.

In the Reform School there were several attacks of la grippe; also of simple catarrhal inflammation. There was one case of sublingual abscess. Two of enlargement of the cervical glands. Three cases of dermatitis of portions of the face. Two cases of phthisis pulmonalis. Several of gastro intestinal derangement, also of neuralgia and rheumatism. A few were suffering from venereal disease when admitted. One case of convulsions.

Shortly after the removal of the inmates to the Work-house, an epidemic of tonsilitis occurred. There were eight cases, the severity varying from a moderate degree of inflammation to extensive ulceration with pronounced constitutional manifestations. We were without any hospital accommodations, whatever. No place to give attention or make applications for their relief, but the cells and the corridors of the cell-house. But one death occurred. The patient was not robust physically and was the first of the attack. She died March 20. I made two visits daily during the time. Under the circumstances every attention and care possible was given by those in charge of the sick with most gratifying results. During February another death occurred. When absent from the Institution on parole the patient contracted a severe cold which resulted in acute phthisis pulmonalis. She was not a resident of the Institution at the time of death, having been permitted to go to her friends a short time before.

In the prison department no deaths have occurred and there has been but few cases of serious illness. Requiring attention was one case of erysipelas. One of exopthalmic goiter. One of recurrent ulcer of the stomach. One of chronic constipation. One of enlarged cervical glands. One of procidentia. One of furuncles on the lower dorsal region. One of erythema multiforme, manifested on the left hand and arm. One case of pregnancy, in which there was about three months development at the time she was admitted. Immediately after the fire occurred she was released by pardon. There were eight cases of tonsilitis during the epidemic at the Work-house. When admitted several were suffering from venereal disease. A number have received treatment for various uterine and pelvic derangements. There has been a number of cases of gastro-intestinal disturbances. Also of simple catarrhal inflammation of the respiratory organs. During the winter there were several cases of la grippe. In one of them pneumonia developed, but recovery followed after several days of serious illness. There were two cases of inflammatory rheumatism. One of chronic peritonitis, complicated by the presence of an intra-ligamentus cystic tumor. After several weeks of confinement to her bed by extreme debility she was granted a parole and removed by her husband to the city hospital for surgical relief. There was one case of chronic ulcer of the leg, also an extensive manifestation of syphilo dermata on various portions of the body.

No one was injured by either burn or accident during the fire, and no bad results were occasioned by the occupancy of the newly repaired building.

At the present time the health of the Institution is good. I have invariably found the building in an excellent sanitary condition. There has been an abundant supply of good food and clothing, plenty of fresh air and light, and the service rendered in caring for the sick and afflicted, kind, faithful and efficient.

SARAH STOCKTON,
Physician.

LAWS

GOVERNING AND CONTROLLING

REFORM SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

AND WOMAN'S PRISON.

LAWS.

AN ACT to establish a female prison and reformatory institution for girls and women, to provide for the organization and government thereof, and making appropriations.

[APPROVED MAY 13, 1869.]

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That there shall be established, as soon as practicable after the taking effect of this act, at or near the city of Indianapolis, an Institution to be known as the Indiana Reformatory Institution for Women and Girls.

SEC. 2. The general supervision and government of said Institution shall be vested in a Board of Managers, consisting of three persons to be known and designated as the Board of Managers of the Indiana Reformatory Institution for Women and Girls; and the members of said Board shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold their offices for the respective terms of two, three and four years from the first day of May, 1869, and until their successors are appointed and qualified, the term of each Manager to be designated in his certificate of appointment, and thereafter, upon the expiration of the term of service of any member of the Board of Managers, one Manager shall be appointed in the same manner, whose term of office shall continue four years from and after the expiration of the term of his predecessor, and until his successor is appointed and qualified, and all vacancies in said Board shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, subject to the approval of the Senate at its next succeeding session, and the person appointed to fill a vacancy shall be entitled to hold his office for the unexpired portion of the term of the person whom he may be appointed to succeed Said Managers, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, shall take an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their office, which oath shall be filed and preserved in the office of the Secretary of State.

SEC. 3. The said Board of Managers shall appoint one of their number as President of the Board.

SEC. 4. The Governor is hereby empowered to select and establish a site for said Institution, which shall not be more than five miles distant from the corporate limits of the city of Indianapolis, and for that purpose he is authorized to receive, in the name of the State, by donation or purchase, not less than three nor more than ten acres of land, and he shall deposit a certificate of his location of the Institution, together with the deed or deeds of conveyance of such land, with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 5. The said institution shall consist of two separate and distinct departments, one of which shall be designated as the Reformatory Department, and the other as the Penal Department. Both of said departments shall be under the management of the same officers, but separate buildings for the inmates of each department shall be provided on the same grounds.

SEC. 6. The Board of Managers shall, with the approval of the Governor, prepare and adopt plans for the grounds, buildings and fixtures necessary and proper for such an Institution, within the limits of the appropriation hereinafter made, and, if practicable, the plans shall be so arranged that the buildings can be enlarged or added to without injury to their symmetry or usefulness, and the said Board may, with the like approval of the Governor, make and execute all necessary contracts for the construction of such buildings and fixtures and the improvement of the grounds, according to the plans which may have been so adopted.

SEC. 7. Said Board of Managers may, with the approval of the Governor, appoint a suitable Superintendent of said Institution, and all necessary subordinates, not exceeding a number to be fixed by the Governor, and fix their respective salaries, and shall have power, with the like approval, to make and enforce all such rules, regulations, ordinances and by-laws, for the government and discipline of said Institution, and for the admission of girls into the Reformatory Department thereof, as they may deem just and proper. The Superintendent and all the subordinate officers of said Institution shall be females:

Provided, however, That if a married woman shall be appointed Superintendent, or to any subordinate position, the husband of such appointee may, with the consent of the Board, reside in the Institution, and may be assigned such duties or employment as the Board of Managers may prescribe.

SEC. 8. Before entering upon the discharge of her duties the Superintendent shall give bond to the State of Indiana in the sum of ten thousand dollars or over, with security to be approved by said Board of Managers, conditioned for the faithful performance of her duties as such Superintendent, and that she will faithfully account for all moneys, property and effects entrusted to her as such, and shall take an oath or affirmation to discharge the duties of her said office with fidelity, and if said Superintendent shall be a married woman such bond shall be executed by her husband and her sureties, but need not be signed by herself.

SEC. 9. The Superintendent shall reside at the Institution, and shall have the charge and custody of the buildings and other property thereof, and of the inmates who may be committed to both departments of the Institution, and shall govern them in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Board of Managers may prescribe, and shall employ such methods of discipline as will, as far as possible, reform the characters, preserve the health, promote regular improvement in the studies and industrial employment of the inmates of the Institution, and secure to them fixed habits of industry, morality and religion, but the rules, regulation and discipline of each department of the Institution shall be adapted to the character of the inmates thereof.

SEC. 10. No manager, officer, or employe of said Institution shall be personally interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract, purchase or sale, made by or to, or on behalf of said Institution, or in any business carried on for, or on behalf of said Institution; and all contracts, purchases, or sales, made in violation of this section shall be deemed and held null and void; and all money paid to such managers, officers, or employes, or to any person for their benefit, in whole or in part consideration of such purchase, contract or sale, may be recovered back by a civil action, in the name of the State of Indiana, against such manager, officer or employe, or against any person acting in his or their behalf; and it is hereby made the duty of the Governor and the Board of Managers, upon satisfactory proof of such interest, to immediately remove such manager, officer or employe so offending, and to report the facts to the Attorney-General, who shall take such legal steps in the premises as he may deem expedient.

SEC. 11. Said Board of Managers shall, on or before the first day of January in each year after the Institute is open for the reception of inmates, make to the Governor a full and detailed report of their doings as such Managers, and of the receipts and expenditures of said Institution with such other information relating to the condition of the Institution and its inmates, and the results attained, as may be deemed interesting or useful to the public, which report shall be communicated by the Governor to the General Assembly at the next succeeding session thereof.

SEC. 12. Whenever said Institution, or either department thereof, shall have been so far completed as to admit of the reception of inmates intended to be committed thereto, the Governor shall make due proclamation of the fact, and thereafter it shall be lawful for said Board of Managers to receive into their care, custody or guardianship, such inmates as may be committed or transferred to either of the departments of said Institution in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 13. The Penal Department of said Institution shall be used for the imprisonment, safe custody and reformation of such women and girls as shall heretofore have been convicted of criminal offences, and sentenced to the State's Prison at Jeffersonville, and who are now undergoing imprisonment in that prison, in pursuance of such sentences, and also of such women and girls over the age of fifteen years who may hereafter be sentenced to imprisonment in the Penal Department of the Institution created by this act, upon conviction by any court of competent jurisdiction of any crime for which such woman or girl might, prior to the passage of this act, have been sentenced to said State Prison.

SEC. 14. As soon as the Penal Department of the Institution created by this act shall be ready for the reception of inmates, it shall be the duty of the Warden of said State Prison, upon the order of the Governor, to transfer and convey to the Institution created by this act, all the female convicts who may be then confined in said prison, and deliver them to the Superintendent of said Institution, with a certified statement in writing, signed by such Warden, setting forth the name of each convict, the court by which, and the offense of, and for which she was convicted and sentenced, the date of the sentence, the term of the court at which sentence was pronounced, and the term for which such convict was sentenced; which certified statement in writing shall be sufficient authority for the confinement of such convict in the Institution created by this act, for the portion of the term of such convict which may be and remain unexpired at the time when she shall be transferred to said Institution as aforesaid.

SEC. 15. When the Penal Department of said Institution shall be ready for the reception of inmates as aforesaid, the Governor may, as to any or all of the female convicts who may then be confined as aforesaid in said State Prison, instead of making an order for their transfer as aforesaid, commute the sentences of said convicts, or any or either of them, by substituting imprisonment in the Penal Department of said Institution for the residue of the term for which they may have been respectively sentenced, or for any less period of time.

SEC. 16. After the Penal Department of said Institution shall have been proclaimed open for the reception of female convicts as hereinbefore provided, it shall not be lawful for any court to sentence any female convict to the State Prison upon conviction of any crime, but thereafter every female convict shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the Penal Department of the Institution created by this act, and the term of imprisonment for which such female convict may be sentenced shall be any period of time for which she might, on conviction, have been sentenced to the State Prison, at and prior to the passage of this act.

SEC. 17. If at any time the Penal Department of said Institution shall become so filled with female convicts that no more can be received therein for the time being, nor until it shall be enlarged or relieved of some of its inmates, then the Governor shall proclaim the fact, and after such proclamation any Court may sentence a female convict over the age of fifteen years to the State Prison to the same extent and in the same manner as if this act had never been passed, and any female convict so sentenced may at any time thereafter, when she can be received in the Penal Department of the Institution created by this act, be transferred thereto and imprisoned therein in either of the modes hereinbefore provided for.

SEC. 18. Nothing in the provisions of this act contained shall be so construed as to prevent any Court upon the conviction of any woman or any girl over fifteen years of age of any criminal offense from sentencing such convict to imprisonment in the county jail of the proper county under the provisions of any law in force in this State prior to and at the time of the taking effect of this act.

SEC. 19. Whenever said Institution shall have been proclaimed to be open for the reception of girls in the Reformatory Department thereof, it shall be lawful for said Board of Managers to receive into their care and management in said Reformatory Department, girls under the age of fifteen years, who may be committed to their custody in either of the following modes, to-wit:

First. When committed by any Judge of a Circuit or Common Pleas Court, either in term time or in vacation, on complaint and due proof by the parent or guardian, that by reason of her incorrigible or vicious conduct she has rendered her control beyond the power of such parent or guardian and made it manifestly requisite that from regard to the future welfare of such infant and for the protection of society she should be placed under such guardianship.

Second. When such infant shall be committed by such Judge as aforesaid, upon complaint by any citizen, and due proof of such complaint, that such infant is a proper subject for the guardianship of said Institution, in consequence of her vagrancy or incorrigibility or vicious conduct, and that from moral depravity or otherwise of her parent or guardian, in whose custody she may be, such parent or guardian is incapable or unwilling to exercise the proper care or discipline over such incorrigible or vicious infant.

Third. When such infant shall be committed by such Judge as aforesaid, on complaint and due proof thereof, by the Township Trustee of the township where such infant resides, that such infant is destitute of a suitable home and of adequate means of obtaining an honest living, or that she is in danger of being brought up to lead an idle and immoral life.

SEC. 20. All commitments to the Penal Department made under the provisions of this act shall be until the infants committed respectively attain the age of eighteen years; and all commitments to the Reformatory Department until they respectively attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner discharged from either department by authority of the Board of Managers, or otherwise, as else where provided in this act.

SEC. 21. If any girl under the age of fifteen years shall, under existing laws, or under those which may hereafter be enacted, be tried by any court of competent jurisdiction for any criminal offense for which she might, on conviction, be sentenced for any period of time to be imprisoned in the proper county jail, it shall be competent for the court or jury by which the case may be tried, at their discretion, on conviction, to substitute confinement in the Reformatory Department of the Institution created by this act for imprisonment in the county jail, and such confinement shall be until the infant attains the age of eighteen years, unless sooner lawfully discharged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 22. If any girl, under the age of fifteen years, shall be accused before any grand jury of any crime or misdemeanor, and the charge is supported by evidence sufficient to put the accused upon trial, the grand jurors may, in their discretion, instead of finding an indictment against the accused, make a return to the Court that it appears to them that the accused is a suitable person to be committed to the guardianship of the Reformatory Department of the Institution created by this act, and the Court may thereupon order such commitment, until the infant shall attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner discharged as aforesaid, if satisfied from evidence adduced that such commitment ought to be made: Provided however, That the production of evidence may be waived by the parent or guardian.

SEC. 23. If any girl, under the age of fifteen years, shall be arraigned for trial before any court of competent jurisdiction, charged with the violation of any criminal law of this State, the Judge of such court may, with the consent of the accused, arrest at any stage of the cause any further proceedings on the part of the prosecution, and commit the accused to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, until she shall attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner lawfully discharged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 24. Whenever any girl under the age of fifteen years shall be imprisoned to await her trial on any charge punishable with imprisonment, such girl may be brought before the proper Circuit or Common Pleas Judge, in term time or vacation, on a writ of habeas corpus, and shall be entitled to a private examination and trial before such Judge with a view to the question whether such infant ought to be committed to said Institution. Only the parties to the case and the parents or guardian of the accused shall be admitted to such examination, unless one of the parents, the guardian, or the legal representatives of the accused shall demand a public trial; in which case all proceedings shall be in the usual manner. And upon such hearing it shall be competent for such Judge to make an order committing the accused to the Reformatory Department of said Institution until she shall attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner lawfully discharged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 25. Whenever any infant under the age of fifteen years shall be committed to the Reformatory department of said Institution under the provisions of this act, the order of commitment shall be signed by the Judge by whom it is made, and authenticated by the Clerk of the proper court under the seal of the court, and such order shall state the name and age of the infant and the section of this act under which she may be committed, without setting forth or mentioning the offense with which she may have been charged, and no other or further record of the proceedings shall be made unless demanded by the infant, or her parents or guardian. If, however, there shall be a regular trial and conviction under the twenty-first section of this act, the usual record shall be made, and in such cases a certified copy of the judgment shall constitute the order of commitment.

SEC. 26. When a commitment shall be made under either of the specifications of section 19 of this act, the order of commitment shall also specify under which of the clauses or specifications of said section such order is made.

SEC. 27. The Board of managers of said Institution may provide by general regulations for the discharge of girls committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, under any section or provision of this act, such discharge to be made by the Superintendent and with the approval of the Board.

SEC. 28. Any person who may be committed to or confined in either department of said Institution and who may escape therefrom may be arrested and returned to said Institution by any officer or citizen on the written order or request of the Superintendent or Board of Managers.

SEC. 29. The Superintendent of said Institution shall have power to place any girl committed to the Reformatory Department thereof at any employment for account of the Institution, or otherwise, and cause her to be instructed in such branches of useful knowledge as such Superintendent may think proper, and shall also have power to bind out such infant, with her consent, during her minority, and may execute indentures of apprenticeship for such infant, which shall have the like force and effect as other indentures of apprenticeship made under the laws of this State, but every indenture of apprenticeship so made, before the delivery thereof, shall be approved by the Board of Managers of said Institution, which approval shall be indorsed on the indenture and signed by the President of the Board, and a record of such approval shall be made in the minutes of the business transactions of the Board; and in case any girl so apprenticed shall prove untrustworthy or unreformed, the Superintendent may permit her to be returned to the Institution to be held in the same manner as before any such apprenticeship, whereupon the indenture may be canceled by order of the Board; and if such infant shall have an unsuitable master or mistress the Superintendent may, with the approval of the Board, take her back into said Institution with or without the consent of such master or mistress, and thereupon the indenture shall be canceled. All indentures so made shall be filed and kept in said Institution, and it shall not be necessary to file or record them in any other office or place, but the master or mistress of any girl so apprenticed shall, on request, be entitled to a copy of her indenture.

SEC. 30. If any girl shall be committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, upon the complaint or at the instance of her parent or guardian, the cost of transporting such girl to the Institution, and the cost of her subsistence and clothing, shall be paid by such parent or guardian, unless such parent is unable, by reason of his or her poverty, to pay the same, or unless such guardian has no funds, effects or estate of such infant, out of which the same could be paid. The order of commitment shall, in every such case, state whether the parent is able to pay the cost of the subsistence and clothing of the infant, or whether the guardian has any estate or effects of the infant out of which such cost can be paid. The Board of Managers shall, in every such case, estimate and fix the amount to be paid, and the same shall be paid to the Superintendent quarterly in advance.

SEC. 31. Said Board of Managers shall, with the approval of the Governor, estimate and determine, as near as may be, the actual expense per annum of clothing and subsisting an infant committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, and include a statement of such estimated price in each annual report, one half of the cost of keeping, according to such estimates, together with the entire cost of conveying each infant to the Institution, shall be paid by the county from which such infant may be committed, except in cases where the cost of transporting such infant to the institution, and her subsistence and clothing, is chargeable to her parent or guardian, under the last preceding section.

SEC. 32. The expenses which any county may be liable to pay for the clothing and subsistence of any girl committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution under the provisions of this act, shall be paid by the Board of County Commissioners of such county into the State Treasury, on a certified statement in detail of the amount due therefor from such county, being transmitted by the Superintendent of the Institution, through the Treasurer of State to the Auditor of the proper county.

SEC. 33. And whenever an inmate of the Penal Department, by continuous good conduct, gives evidence of permanent reformation, she may, in like manner, be transferred to the Reformatory Department on probation, and may be continued therein so long as her conduct may, in the opinion of the Board of Managers and Superintendent, justify it.

SEC. 34. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, the sum of $50,000 is hereby appropriated, to be paid out of the State treasury upon the warrants of the Governor: Provided, That no building shall be erected under this act, which shall exceed in cost to the State the sum hereby appropriated. * * *

SEC. 35. If a parent, guardian or master of any infant committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, or any person occupying the position of parent or guardian in fact, or any relation by blood or marriage not more remote than first cousin to such infant, shall feel aggrieved by the commitment of such infant to said Institution, he may make written application to the Board of Managers of said Institution for the discharge of such infant, which application shall be filed with the Superintendent, who shall inform the Managers thereof, and the same shall be heard and determined by said Managers at such time as they shall appoint for that purpose, not later than the next regular meeting of the Board. Such applications shall state the grounds of the applicants' claim to the custody of the infant and the reasons for claiming such custody. Within ten days after the hearing of such application the Board of Managers shall make and announce their decision thereon, and if they shall be of the opinion that the welfare of such infant would be promoted by granting the application, they shall make an order to that effect; otherwise they shall deny the application. The applicant may, upon the denial of the application, by first giving security for the payment of all costs (the security to be approved by the Clerk of the proper court), commence an action in the Circuit Court or Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the Institution may be situated, for the recovery of the custody of such infant against the Managers of the Institution, and the complaint in said action shall state the facts and manner of the commitment, and the making of the plaintiff's application to the Managers for the custody of such infant, and the denial of such application by said Managers, as well as the ground upon which the plaintiff relies for the recovery of the custody of such infant. Said action shall be prosecuted in like manner as other civil actions, and the costs thereof shall be paid by the plaintiff, without reference to the result of the action, unless the court shall state in the judgment that the refusal of the Managers to grant the application of the plaintiff was plainly unreasonable, or that the original commitment was manifestly unnecessary and improper.

SEC. 36. Whenever any female under the age of fifteen years shall be sentenced by any court of competent jurisdiction to imprisonment in any county jail, it shall be lawful for the Governor, on the application of such infant, her parent, guardian, or any other person, to commute her punishment by sub stituting therefore the commitment of such infant to the Reformatory Department of the Institution created by this act, during the minority of such infant, unless sooner lawfully dis charged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 37. Said Managers shall be allowed for their services the sum of one hundred and sixty dollars per annum, payable quarterly on the warrant of the Governor, out of the Treasury of the State, and no traveling expenses or other allowances shall be paid to said Managers, or any of them.

SEC. 38. It shall be the duty of said Board of Managers to provide teachers, and as far as practicable instruct the inmates of said Institution in reading, writing and arithmetic.

SEC. 39. It shall be the duty of the Governor from time to time, as he may deem necessary, to appoint a Board of Visitors to visit and inspect said Institution, and examine as to the treatment, employment and condition of its inmates, and the management of its affairs, including the expenditures thereof; and to enable them to do so, the Board of Managers and Superintendent of the Institution shall afford such Board of Visitors all needful facilities to enable them thoroughly to perform their duty, including an inspection of the books, records and accounts of the Institution. Such Board of Visitors shall consist of one man and two women, and at least two visitations shall be made each year, and the result thereof shall be reported to the Governor, but such visitations shall be made without any cost or expense to the State.

CHAPTER L.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled "An act to establish a female prison and reformatory institution for girls and women, and to provide for the organization and government thereof, and making appropriations;" approved May 13, 1869.

[APPROVED FEBRUARY 3, 1873.]

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That there be, and is hereby appropriated, the sum of fifty thousand dollars, for the purpose of completing and finishing the building already erected for said Institution, and for fencing and putting in order the grounds appurtenant to said building; the said appropriation to be drawn from the treasury in the manner prescribed by the original act, to which this is a supplement.

SEC. 2. Whenever said Institution or any portion or department thereof is ready to be furnished, the Board of Managers thereof shall present to the Auditor of State an itemized estimate of the articles needed for that purpose, with the estimated cost of each item or article, which estimate or statement shall be verified by the oath of the President of said Board, and upon the presentation of said estimate or statement to the Auditor of State, said Auditor shall, as soon as practicable, notify the Governor, Secretary and Treasurer of State of the filing of such statement, and if the majority of said officers shall be of the opinion that the proposed expenditure or some part thereof is necessary for the proper furnishing of said Institution, or any part or department thereof, they shall direct, in writing, the Auditor of State to draw his warrant for the amount so estimated for, or such part or portion thereof as they may approve, on the Treasurer of State, who shall pay the same to the President of said Board, or to his order, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. As it is almost impossible, without knowing the number of inmates that will be in said Institution, and the number of officers that will be necessary to manage and govern its affairs, the current expenses of said Institution shall be estimated for, allowed, and drawn from the treasury as follows, viz.:

At the commencement of each month the Superintendent of the Institution shall prepare and verify by his oath an estimated itemized statement in writing of the amounts that will be required to meet the current expenses of such Institution during such month, and present the same to the Auditor of State, who shall notify the Governor, Secretary and Treasurer of the State thereof, and if a majority of said officers shall approve and allow said estimate, or a part thereof, they shall direct in writing the Auditor of State to draw his warrant on the Treasurer of State for the amount which may be so allowed by said State officers, or by a majority of them, and said Treasurer shall pay said warrant out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. Every such estimated itemized statement shall set forth the number of inmates in each of the departments of the Institution, and also the number of officers and persons employed therein.

SEC. 4. The Board of Managers and Superintendent of said Institution shall, at the end of every period of six months, commencing with the first money which may be drawn from the treasury on any estimate made under either of the previous sections of this act, make an itemized report of the expenditure of the money which may have been so drawn from the treasury under this act, and the Auditor shall carefully examine such report, and if in his opinion any money shall have been improperly expended by the purchase of unnecessary articles, or by paying too much therefor, or otherwise, said Auditor shall immediately notify the Governor, Secretary and Treasurer of State, who, in conjunction with such Auditor, shall immediately proceed to investigate the matter, and in accordance with the decision of a majority of these officers the account shall be audited: Provided, however, That before rendering an adverse decision upon any such account, or any part thereof, they shall notify the disbursing officer, and allow him to present such explanations or adduce such testimony as he may desire in regard to the matter, and they shall have the same power to summon and require the attendance of witnesses as are given to the Circuit Courts of this State.

SEC. 5. The Auditor of State shall keep and preserve a full record of all the proceedings of said officers of the State under the foregoing provisions of this act.

SEC. 6. An emergency is hereby declared to exist for the immediate taking effect of this act; therefore, the same shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER XLV.

MANAGERS' REPORT.

Indianapolis, Ind., October 31, 1893.

To His Excellency, Claude Matthews, Governor of State:

The Board of Managers of the Reform School for Girls and Woman's Prison have the honor to submit to your Excellency the twenty-second report of the institution, together with the annual reports of the Superintendent, Physician and Book-keeper.

These reports, exhibits and tables give the financial, sanitary and moral condition of the institution for the past year in complete detail, and we respectfully ask your careful consideration thereof.

When our last report was submitted, the Board of Managers consisted of Eliza C. Hendricks, who served as President; Claire A. Walker and Laura Ream, with Margaretta S. Elder, Secretary.

Mrs. Hendricks resigned, and Isabella W. Roache was appointed as her successor, assuming the duties of Manager April 27, 1893.

On the 4th of April Mrs. Walker was chosen President until March 4, 1894.

The twelve stated meetings of the Board have been held at the Institution on the first Wednesday of the month, besides seven called meetings and as many visits as the business required.

The Superintendent, Miss Keely; Physician, Dr. Sarah Stockton, and Secretary, Miss Elder, were, on March 4, 1893, re-appointed to their several positions for one year.

Changes in the official staff and among the employes have occurred as follows:

In February, Mrs. Elmira L. Johnson, Assistant Superintendent, was obliged to sever her connection with the institution on account of failing health, and her demise occurred March 22, 1893.

She was a faithful and valued officer of the institution from its opening, in October, 1873, serving it in the varied capacities of Prison Matron, Assistant Superintendent and, for two years, Superintendent.

At the first meeting of the Board after her decease, the Managers sent the following testimonial of respect to her aged mother. The expression, be it said, conveyed but a feeble appreciation of her many virtues and great usefulness to the institution.

"To Mrs. Hannah Henshaw and Family:

"We, the Board of Managers and Superintendent, desire to express our sympathies with you and your family in the death of Mrs. Elmina L. Johnson, late Assistant Superintendent of this institution.

"We cherish a pleasing remembrance of her many virtues and faithful service."

Mrs. Anna M. Prettyman, of Indianapolis, was appointed First Assistant Superintendent, and Miss Susanna Pray, Second Assistant Superintendent.

Miss Emma A. Holmes was appointed General Prison Assistant, in place of Miss R. B. Norisey, resigned.

Miss Laura M. Cooper, School Teacher, in place of Miss A. Wadsworth.

Miss Iza Williamson, Disbursing Officer, in place of Mrs. A. Broadrup, resigned.

Mr. Joseph Schneider, Laundry Collector, in place of Mr. Robert Petrie, resigned.

The cost of the institution for provisions, salaries, clothing, light, general expenses, medical attendance and discharge allowance has been, for each inmate, for the year $169.00
Being .....$3.25 per week and ..... .43 per day.

As stated in our last report, in addition to the amount expended out of our maintenance fund of 1891–92 for repairs, necessitated by the fire of 1891, we were indebted in the following amounts, viz.:

To James E. Shover, contractor	$3,307 40
J. S. Farrell & Co., plumbing	2,000 00
Manufacturers' and Carpenters' Union, lumber	1,543 91
Total	$6,851 31

These amounts have been duly paid out of the appropriation for 1892–93, but the payment of this sum out of the regular maintenance fund again left us crippled and in debt, so that, despite the most rigid economy, there remained unpaid at the close of this fiscal year, for current expenses, bills to the amount of $5,657.23.

These bills will be met at once and without difficulty out of the appropriation for 1893–94, as, in response to our request made last year, when the above facts were reported to Your Excellency, the Legislature granted an additional $5,000, giving the institution $45,000 for maintenance and repairs for 1893–94, and also for 1894–95.

Only such ordinary and unavoidable repairs have been undertaken as were required in a sanitary way and for better fire protection, at an expense of $484.58.

Minor repairs have been as follows:

Iron hand-rails to side door in west court and to north door of reform school hall.

Cement floor in prison laundry.

Corrugated iron ceiling and west wall in store-room.

Corrugated iron ceiling in main hall to toilet-room.

Adamant ceiling to prison ironing-room.

Roof of store and toilet-rooms in prison court yard, and the gutters of the roof of office building repaired.

West side yard sodded.

Key cabinet added to file cabinet.

Cathedral glass window in west end of chapel.

Total paid out for repairs, $7,390.89.

New chapel benches and two school desks have been purchased; also six new sewing machines.

We are now carrying insurance, as follows:

On building	$33,525 00
On furnishings	3,725 00
On stable	1,000 00
On lodge	700 00
Total	$38,950 00

The following companies are represented with McGilliard & Dark agency:

Ohio Farmers'	$1,000 00
Sun of California	2,000 00
American, Philadelphia	3,000 00
Springfield	2,500 00
Indiana Underwriters	2,500 00
Ft. Wayne Underwriters	1,500 00
Allemania	1,500 00
Rockford	2,500 00
Girard	1,500 00
Pacific	2,500 00
Merchants' Fire, Lloyds	2,500 00
With Gregory & Appel agency:
British America	2,500 00
Northern London	2,500 00
Franklin, Ind.	3,000 00
Orient, Conn	3,000 00
Ohio Farmers'	2,000 00
Bowery Fire, N. Y.	1,250 00
West Chester	1,000 00
Franklin, Ind	700 00
Total	$38,950 00

As required by section 6192, R. S. 1881, the Board has estimated and determined "the actual expense per annum of clothing and subsisting an infant committed to the Reform School for Girls," and has fixed the amount at $169, the counties to pay one-half of this amount.

There was reported to the Treasurer of State, during the fiscal year from this source	$9,837 37
The earnings and receipts turned into the State Treasury quarterly have amounted to	2,958 10
Thus we have a credit of	12,795 47
As against the appropriation of $40,000, leaving a net cost to the State of	27,204 53

In addition we have earned, as shown by exhibit "C," $527.68, for which we hold the receiver's certificate of deposit in Indianapolis National Bank. Of this, we will probably sustain a partial loss.

We found it necessary to have commissions in lunacy sit upon the following cases:

Matilda Logan, committed to the Reform School from Steuben County, and Emma Prince, from Marion County. Also Caroline Gerardy, committed to the Penal Department from Knox County, and Sarah J. Williams, from Washington County.

The first, second and fourth named have been duly transferred to the Central Insane Hospital, the third to the Northern Insane Hospital, after requisite action, in each case, by Your Excellency.

Two prisoners have received a provisional pardon, and one a pardon from Your Excellency, also one reform girl was released by Your Excellency.

One girl was released on order of Judge of Court as wrongly committed.

One girl, voluntarily confessing to guilt in assisting to fire the building in 1891, was transferred to county jail for trial, and sentenced by Marion County Criminal Court to the Penal Department.

To aid in the physical development of our girls, classes in calisthenic exercises and drill have been arranged, and we note a marked improvement in their bearing and general health.

As required by Senate Bill No. 352 (1893), regulating disciplinary punishments in State prisons, we have opened the prescribed books of record.

In closing the second decade of the institution, and this report, we would call Your Excellency's attention to the fact that penal commitments have not increased in proportion to the growth of population in the State. On the contrary, rather fewer commitments have been received in both departments, this year, than for many years previous.

It is worthy of note that, up to 1889, there was a comparatively steady increase in the number of penal commitments. At the close of that year there were fifty-nine in the Penal Department. Since that year the commitments have decreased each year, there being now forty-eight in the Penal Department, a decrease of nearly 23 per cent.

The average number of inmates for the past ten years has been 52½, a decrease of nearly 10 per cent., while the growth of State population since the census of 1880 shows an increase of quite 12 per cent.

May we not conclude, from this showing, that we are accomplishing something of vital importance to the State through the reformatory character of our work, and that, as a people and a State, we are progressive and justified in the large outlay of the State's funds for correctional and reformatory purposes?

The Board of Managers desire to express their obligations to the Superintendent, officers and employes for their faithful and efficient support.

We beg you will accept the assurance of our keen appreciation of the interest taken by yourself in the successful management of the institution.

Respectfully submitted,

CLAIRE A. WALKER,
LAURA REAM,
ISABELLA W. ROACHE,
Managers.

ANNA DUNLOP,
Secretary.

NOTE.—On account of Miss Elder's failing health and death, Miss Dunlop (elected to fill her unexpired term) was obliged to write the annual report. This will explain her signature.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

OFFICE REFORM SCHOOL FOR GIRLS AND WOMAN'S PRISON,
October 31, 1893.

To the Board of Managers:

LADIES—In submitting to you the Twenty-second Annual Statement of this double institution—the Reform School for Girls and Woman's Prison—I am very glad to be able to report it in a satisfactory condition in all of its departments.

The subjoined statistical tables and items of expenditures, carefully prepared by the book-keeper, will present to you a complete and accurate statement of all transactions had during the year.

You will also find in the statistics the number of inmates in both institutions at the beginning of the year, the number admitted during the year, the number sent out on tickets-of-leave, pardoned or paroled, or disposed of in various ways, together with some facts bearing upon the nationality, family and social history of those committed to our care and custody.

Very few of our inmates come from good families or from careful, painstaking parents. They have never been controlled and have but little idea of self-control.

The daily management of such an institution as this is a complex and perplexing problem, but we believe the history of the year just closing is full of good results in the way of mental, moral and physical development.

We have daily followed the Divine injunction, "In the morning sow the seed, and in the evening withhold not thy hand; for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they shall be alike good."

Mrs. E. L. Johnson, the Assistant Superintendent of the institution, who had been granted by you a leave of absence in July, 1892, to recuperate her health, returned to her work

November 1, but failing health again compelled her to resign a work she had been engaged in for twenty years. She laid the burdens of life down very reluctantly, and went to her home in February, 1893. On the 22d of March, she was laid to rest in Crown Hill Cemetery to await the resurrection of the dead.

Mrs. Anna Prettyman was, by you, appointed First Assistant Superintendent and Miss Susanna Pray made Second Assistant Superintendent.

Some other changes have been made in our official force, but these only in the interest of the institution or in case of voluntary resignation. These have been reported to you as they occurred. All of the departments are now in charge of experienced matrons, officers and teachers whose work and management give general satisfaction.

REFORM SCHOOL.

DISCIPLINE.

The government of the Reform School is kind but firm and intended to develop a conscience and self-control.

With few exceptions the environment of the girls before coming here is always of a low order, differing only in degree. They are generally ignorant not only of the ordinary branches of education and industry, but also of everything that is good or true. Most of them are familiar with every form of vice. To create a thirst for knowledge in some of these intellects, and to teach them to love the right, rather than the wrong, seems almost impossible.

By arousing the moral nature the way to the heart is opened and by awakening the dormant faculties and getting the girl to think, a new life opens before her. And, although we meet with very many difficulties owing to the previous habits and methods of life, yet, in very many cases we find earnest labor and persistent effort will meet with reward commensurate with their inherited abilities.

There have been no attempted escapes, and serious misdemeanors have been rare. A prompt and cheerful obedience has usually been given.

INDUSTRIES.

As all reformatory work must be founded upon industrial employment, some work is given to the youngest as well as the oldest.

Keeping the grounds clean and orderly, leveling the drives, cutting the grass, pulling up weeds, sweeping the walks, and all such work help to cultivate habits of industry and give employment to all.

We seek to make our girls self-supporting by insisting upon thorough work, whether in handling the needle, the broom or the wash-board. Generally they are ambitious to become proficient.

The patching and darning classes turn out beautiful work, though much of it is done by the smaller children.

The hard times and scarcity of work has deprived us of one of our prettiest industries, the cane seating of chairs. We hope to resume this in the early spring, for—while not remunerative to the State—it gives the children a useful and pleasant employment.

The best caners make the best darners, and quite a number of girls have cared nicely for themselves after leaving the institution by caning chairs, either in their neighborhoods or in factories.

We have continued to work for the Central Chair Company, of Indianapolis, and have done for them 2,377 seats, besides 63 chairs for city patrons, for which we have received $198.86.

In order that practical instruction may be received in laundry work in the school, we have retained a number of city patrons, though we have not done as much of this outside work or earned as much money as during other years.

The girls have laundried for city patrons 20,484 pieces, besides all the work for the entire school and nine officers, amounting to 166,588 pieces.

Our aim is not so much to earn money for the State as to impart instruction and give the practice requisite for this class of work. We received $856.06 from patrons.

Some sewing has been done in the school for patrons, but the making, mending and darning of the clothing for one hundred and fifty girls, as well as the bedding, is about all that can be accomplished in the sewing classes.

The girls are quite interested in crocheting and all kinds of fancy work. Classes have recently been organized in these branches, under Miss Holmes, for two evenings and Saturday afternoons of each week.

The piecing and quilting of quilts has been carried on as never before.

In addition to our regular industries, cooking, cutting and fitting of dresses, bed-making, sweeping, dusting are taught, and, as all of the work of the School is done by the girls—so many of them young and growing—the greatest care must be taken in assigning the tasks, that they are not too heavy.

We have taken up no new industry, having had no time for this, as only one-half of each day is spent by each girl in industrial work, the other one-half being given up to school duties and recreation. There have been 19,079 loaves of bread baked in the School; 4,566 biscuits, and 5,259 cookies.

SCHOOL.

We have morning and afternoon classes in both the grammar and primary schools; also in the industrial schools.

The girls engaged in the work-rooms in the morning attend the afternoon session, from 1 to 5 P. M., while the girls attending the morning session, from 8:30 to 12 noon, go into the work-rooms during the afternoon hours. Thus each teacher has her morning and afternoon class, with change of work for each.

While our girls are invariably slow in work, they are not always slow in their books. Girls fourteen and fifteen years old are often received who can neither read nor write. These learn very quickly when the opportunity is given.

Great attention is given to letter-writing and to composition. Abstracts are often written of sermons and lectures heard in the chapel, by the younger as well as older girls, which shows not only talent, but memory and comprehension.

The primary school is still in charge of Miss Helen P. Craig. Many of the children are far in advance of the older ones, but they are kept apart from those older, not only here, but at work and play as well.

The work here is all third grade work—"A" and "B" classes; two pupils who can read and write but little.

"A" class has (Indiana series) Primary History, Elementary Geography, Fourth Reader, Nos. 3 and 4 Writing, Spelling and Elementary Arithmetic.

"B" class has (Indiana series) Second and Third Readers, Primary Geography, Nos. 1 and 2 Writing, Primary Arithmetic, Spelling.

The grammar grade is in charge of Miss Cooper, and has three grades. "A" class has Arithmetic, Indiana's Complete History, Montgomery's American Geography, Indiana's Complete Grammar, English Spelling and Writing series.

Class "B" has Arithmetic, Indiana's Complete Geography, Fourth Reader, Spelling and Writing Book No. 4.

Class "C" has Arithmetic, Indiana's Elementary Geography, Third Reader, Spelling and No. 3 Writing Book.

LIBRARY.

As a reformatory agency the library is of incalculable value. A desire for the companionship of good books is always regarded as a favorable omen. We have two reading rooms for the older girls and one for those younger. Our library is not numerically large, but it contains very few unused books. We buy the best authors and keep on hand the standard works. These are replaced as they become worn or defaced. We believe it is better to have a few well read books than to have our shelves filled with unused volumes. Quite a number of girls can converse intelligently upon the writers of the day and the books they have given to the world.

The primary grade is always well supplied with illustrated books and papers and many of the children enjoy reading as well as being read to.

We have received a number of magazines, Harpers' Weekly, Ram's Horn, and other books and papers from Mr. T. L. Sewall, Wm. Scott, Will. Wheeler and others. "The Dawn," "The Silent Hoosier," "The Advance," "Record and Appeal" and other institution papers which have been sent to us gratuitously are full of good things and are always welcomed with delight. The magazines have been bound and placed upon our shelves. Several copies of the Youth's Companion and St. Nicholas have been subscribed for as in previous years. "The International Lesson Leaves," "Sunday-school Advocate," "Sunday-school Classmate," and children's picture papers are of great help in the study and understanding of the Sunday-school lessons.

HEALTH.

We have had several severe cases of sickness among the girls and one death—that of Christina Giller, a friendless girl, who died early in the year of consumption, after many months of suffering. Her funeral services were held in the Institution chapel, Rev. Frank Hood officiating, and her remains were laid away in Crown Hill Cemetery.

The general health of the family has been good. No epidemics have prevailed.

One case of sunstroke occurred during the summer, leaving the child in a very delicate condition.

Four classes are taught daily in physical culture and light gymnastics. Drills and fancy marches are often given.

TICKET-OF-LEAVE.

We have now in homes on tickets-of-leave fifty-two girls. It is always a source of delight when a girl does well in a home in which she has been placed. There are many good homes and many girls fit into them, giving satisfaction and comfort to those employing them. Others can not get along and are returned to us; still others prove incompetent and come back for continued instruction. Twelve have been returned for various reasons.

We have received forty-five new girls and discharged nine as of age. One has died in the institution, two died while out on ticket-of-leave, two have been transferred to the Insane Hospital, one to the Woman's Prison. Thirty-six were sent out in the year on tickets of-leave and we have remaining one hundred and forty-eight.

WOMAN'S PRISON.

We find the number of commitments to the Woman's Prison decreasing and the number of women remaining at the close of the year less than usual.

Out of the five hundred and twenty three (523) women received since the opening of the institution in 1873, only thirty-eight were re-commitments—about seven per cent.

Of the forty-eight women now in this department, fully eighty per cent. are quiet, orderly and teachable, working hard for a good record. The remaining twenty per cent. are incorrigible, and should be kept in separate apartments, where they may receive the required very strict discipline. Our building is so constructed that all we can do is to give them, at times, individual or separate care in their own rooms.

We have received twenty two new women during the year, for the following offenses: perjury, burglary, petit larceny, grand larceny, murder, manslaughter, counterfeiting, receiving stolen goods, arson, assault and battery with intent to kill.

Twenty six have been discharged upon expiration of sentence; two have been pardoned by the Governor, one to go to her home in South Carolina, and one to be transferred to the Insane Hospital at Logansport. One, serving a life sentence, was paroled by the Governor upon good behavior.

One, paroled by the Governor for a surgical operation at the City Hospital, was returned to the institution to serve out her sentence.

Forty eight are remaining at the close of year—serving life sentences, nine.

A daily record is kept of work and conduct. Each woman is placed upon her honor in giving her report, but she is marked by report given by officer in charge.

A written record is also kept of each case of punishment. No corporal punishments have been inflicted. Our methods of punishment are: Detention in their own sleeping rooms, with every comfort and convenience about them—simply a separation from the family. If they are willing to take work, it is given them, with regular meals. If not willing to work, bread and water is given until they do become willing. If one, thus detained in her room, becomes noisy, profane or insolent, she is removed to a solitary.

The women mingle together at noon hour, and have also the privilege of talking together until 7:30 P. M. Retiring bell rings at 8:00 P. M. Each woman goes to her room after supper, where she is locked in for the night. The well lighted halls give her sufficient light to read or work as she may desire.

If a woman chooses to obey and earn her "good time," she has every help. Jealousy and tale-bearing are the cause of nearly all disturbances. Too much intercourse is harmful and entire separation is in some cases necessary.

The women work, as a general thing, willingly and well. Neither do they complain if an extra task is sometimes required.

INDUSTRIES.

We have added no new industry. In the general sewing room we have continued to make overalls and jumpers for R. G. Harseim & Co., City; making in the year, overalls, 1,087⅓ dozen, jumpers, 176⅝ dozen, for which we received $449.28. From the quilting, dress making and general sewing, we have received $235.85. (See Table No. 7 for numbers of garments).

The prison laundry is still ahead in good work. Has handled for city patrons, 41,488 pieces, for which we have received $1,624.36. Has handled for inmates and officers, 41,102 pieces; 8,596 loaves of bread have been baked and 2,861 meals prepared for the sick.

HEALTH.

No serious cases of sickness have occurred, but several chronic cases have required constant care and caused much anxiety. All of these women come to us broken in health, caused by the bad lives they have led. One confirmed morphine user has been entirely cured by persistent effort and treatment. One child was born three weeks after the mother came in. No deaths have occurred. No escapes have ever been attempted.

A report of all expenditures and receipts, in classified detail, is made each quarter to the State Board of Charities, and all earnings are paid into the State Treasury quarterly.

Five hundred and twenty-seven dollars of our year's earnings are tied up in the Indianapolis National Bank, a part of which will be recovered.

There has been received from all sources, including above amount, $3,475.98.

Our garden yielded more plentifully than for several years, but the exceedingly dry weather shortened the season.

Two hundred and nineteen chickens, 14 ducks, 10 guineas have been hatched, and 228 dozen eggs gathered, 4 calves sold and 9 hogs fattened.

IMPROVEMENTS.

We have not been able to make even needed improvements for lack of funds.

The boilers required some attention, and there is always plumbing to be done. A new cement floor was laid in prison laundry wash-room and a plastered ceiling in ironing-room, while the stove or heating-room was ceiled and lined on one side with corrugated iron, but the expense of this work must be met out of the new appropriations.

A cathedral window and new benches have been put in the chapel, but we are still deficient in means of lighting.

An iron hand-rail to stone steps leading to north court of school was put up and extensive repairs to slate roof and gutters of administration building. Quite an amount of sodding was made necessary by our loss. The women did the work themselves in their court, but in the school-yard work was done by White & Co.

Six new sewing-machines were purchased—four for the prison and two for the reform school.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

We employ no Chaplain in our institution, the daily religious services being conducted by the Superintendent and her assistants. We have devotional exercises both morning and evening. The daily reading conducted with the International Sunday-school Lesson is always our morning reading. Much time is given to song, and both girls and women love to sing. Our Wednesday evening prayer meeting and Friday evening song service, the Sunday-school and band meetings, together with the King's Daughters Circles in the School, all give time for careful thought and preparation for a future life.

The only time the girls and prisoners meet together is on Sunday afternoon is Chapel service, when our city ministers in turn are employed to preach the gospel to us. Thus, although shut in, we are not deprived of the very best sermons. These ministers and other helpers come to us with hearts overflowing with sympathy and love, and their coming brings to us a better knowledge of the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Faithful men and women often come to us during the week for evening services, and only eternity will record the good they are thus enabled to do us. Some seed may fall in barren and stony soil, but some will fall upon hearts that are ready to receive it, and some day will bear an abundant harvest.

We have no other weapon of defense in the house save the Spirit of the Lord. Thus, we daily look to one who said, "Without Me ye can do nothing, but with Me ye can do all things."

All legal holidays have been observed in the most approved manner and have been greatly enjoyed by all.

Our thanks are due to the many friends who have remembered us with kind words of approval or with helpful service.

To the officers, teachers and employes I desire to give thanks for cheerful performance of duty as well as their constant effort to make this work a success. And to you, as a "Board of Managers," for your kind sympathy and support in my daily work.

Most of all we gratefully recognize the good hand of God upon us in all the blessings of the year, and to Him be all the praise for any good that has been accomplished.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH F. KEELY,

Superintendent.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

LADIES—I herewith submit the report of the Hospital Department of the Institution for the year ending October 31, 1893:

I have continued the tri-weekly visits at stated periods, and have responded to calls whenever extra services were required.

There have been but few cases of serious illness in the Prison Department

Of temporary illness there have been four cases of tonsilitis and several slight attacks of bronchitis. Several have suffered from gastro-intestinal troubles and mild attacks of malaria.

There have been two cases of erysipelas and several of la-grippe. One case of extensive swelling with tenderness of the left hip, which was relieved before suppuration occurred.

Several have received treatment for various uterine and pelvic derangements and venereal diseases, from which they were suffering when admitted.

There was one birth, an illegitimate female child, white, born October 15, 1893. Mother admitted September 16, 1893. The birth was about seven weeks premature. The labor was precipitated by a fall the mother accidently received the day previous. Very soon after its birth a severe attack of apthalmia neonatorum developed. The child was so asthenic that it was difficult to administer proper treatment, but there has been some improvement, with a possibility of recovery.

There have been two cases of general debility.

Two persons have been sent to the Hospital for Insane. One a case of acute melancholia, and the other chronic homicidal mania. One case, when admitted, was addicted to the habitual use of morphia.

Thirty-six have been in the hospital during the year. No deaths have occurred in this department.

In the Reformatory Department there have been thirty-two cases of tonsilitis. They were usually mild in character. Three have been more severe, with extensive ulceration and marked constitutional disturbance.

There have been six cases of typhoid fever; six of erysipelas; three of asthma; two of general debility; two of amenorrhœa; one of tuberculosis; one of enlarged cervical glands, with suppuration resulting on the left side; there were two cases of acute mania, both were sent to the Hospital for the Insane. Seventy have been in the hospital, in this department, during the year. Two deaths occurred, both from phthisis pulmonalis; one died November 4, 1892, and the other October 30, 1893, her death occurring two weeks after she was permitted to return to her friends.

In both departments vaccination was performed for all who required it. There were a few cases of temporary illness, but no permanent derangement.

To the faithful and efficient services rendered the sick is largely due the low rate of mortality and the good health that at present prevails.

Respectfully,

SARAH STOCKTON,

Physician.

SEC. 2. The general supervision and government of said Institution shall be vested in a Board of Managers, consisting of three persons, to be known and designated as the Board of Managers of the Indiana Reformatory Institution for Women and Girls; and the members of said Board shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold their offices for the respective terms of two, three and four years from the first day of May, 1869, and until their successors are appointed and qualified, the term of each Manager to be designated in his certificate of appointment, and thereafter, upon the expiration of the term of service of any member of the Board of Managers, one Manager shall be appointed in the same manner, whose term of office shall continue four years from and after the expiration of the term of his predecessor, and until his successor is appointed and qualified, and all vacancies in said Board shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, subject to the approval of the Senate at its next succeeding session, and the person appointed to fill a vacancy shall be entitled to hold his office for the unexpired portion of the term of the person whom he may be appointed to succeed. Said Managers, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, shall take an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their office, which oath shall be filed and preserved in the office of the Secretary of State.

SEC. 3. The said Board of Managers shall appoint one of their number as President of the Board.

SEC. 4. SEC. 5. The said Institution shall consist of two separate and distinct departments, one of which shall be designated as the Reformatory Department, and the other as the Penal Department. Both of said departments shall be under the management of the same officers, but separate buildings for the inmates of each department shall be provided on the same grounds.

SEC. 6. The Board of Managers shall, with the approval of the Governor, prepare and adopt plans for the grounds, buildings and fixtures necessary and proper for such an Institution, within the limits of the appropriation hereinafter made, and, if practicable, the plans shall be so arranged that the buildings can be enlarged or added to without injury to their symmetry or usefulness, and the said Board may, with the like approval of the Governor, make and execute all necessary contracts for the construction of such buildings and fixtures and the improvement of the grounds, according to the plans which may have been so adopted.

SEC. 7. Said Board of Managers may, with the approval of the Governor, appoint a suitable Superintendent of said Institution, and all necessary subordinates, not exceeding a number to be fixed by the Governor, and fix their respective salaries, and shall have power, with the like approval, to make and enforce all such rules, regulations, ordinances and by-laws, for the government and discipline of said Institution, and for the admission of girls into the Reformatory Department thereof, as they may deem just and proper. The Superintendent and all the subordiate officers of said Institution shall be females;

Provided, however, That if a married woman shall be appointed Superintendent, or to any subordinate position, the husband of such appointee may, with the consent of the Board, reside in the Institution, and may be assigned such duties or employment as the Board of Managers may prescribe.

SEC. 8. Before entering upon the discharge of her duties the Superintendent shall give bond to the State of Indiana in the sum of ten thousand dollars or over, with security to be approved by said Board of Managers, conditioned for the faithful performance of her duties as such Superintendent, and that she will faithfully account for all moneys, property and effects entrusted to her as such, and shall take an oath or affirmation to discharge the duties of her said office with fidelity, and if said Superintendent shall be a married woman such bond shall be executed by her husband and her sureties, but need not be signed by herself.

SEC. 9. The Superintendent shall reside at the Institution, and shall have the charge and custody of the buildings and other property thereof, and of the inmates who may be committed to both departments of the Institution, and shall govern them in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Board of Managers may prescribe, and shall employ such methods of discipline as will, as far as possible, reform the characters, preserve the health, promote regular improvement in the studies and industrial employment of the inmates of the Institution, and secure to them fixed habits of industry, morality and religion, but the rules, regulations and discipline of each department of the Institution shall be adapted to the character of the inmates thereof.

SEC. 10. No manager, officer or employe of said Institution shall be personally interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract, purchase or sale, made by or to, or on behalf of, said Institution, or in any business carried on for, or on behalf of said Institution; and all contracts, purchases, or sales, made in violation of this section shall be deemed and held null and void; and all money paid to such managers, officers, or employes, or to any person for their benefit, in whole or in part consideration of such purchase, contract or sale, may be recovered back by a civil action, in the name of the State of Indiana, against such manager, officer or employe, or against any person acting in his or their behalf; and it is hereby made the duty of the Governor and the Board of Managers, upon satisfactory proof of such interest, to immediately remove such manager, officer or employe so offending, and to report the facts to the Attorney-General, who shall take such legal steps in the premises as he may deem expedient.

SEC. 11. Said Board of Managers shall, on or before the first day of January in each year after the Institute is open for the reception of inmates, make to the Governor a full and detailed report of their doings as such Managers, and of the receipts and expenditures of said Institution, with such other information relating to the condition of the Institution and its inmates, and the results attained, as may be deemed interesting or useful to the public, which report shall be communicated by the Governor to the General Assembly at the next succeeding session thereof.

SEC. 12. Whenever said Institution, or either department thereof, shall have been so far completed as to admit of the reception of inmates intended to be committed thereto, the Governor shall make due proclamation of the fact, and thereafter it shall be lawful for said Board of Managers to receive into their care, custody or guardianship, such inmates as may be committed or transferred to either of the departments of said Institution in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 13. The Penal Department of said Institution shall be used for the imprisonment, safe custody and reformation of such women and girls as shall heretofore have been convicted of criminal offenses, and sentenced to the State's prison at Jeffersonville, and who are now undergoing imprisonment in that prison, in pursuance of such sentences, and also of such women and girls over the age of fifteen years who may hereafter be sentenced to imprisonment in the Penal Department of the Institution created by this act, upon conviction by any court of competent jurisdiction of any crime for which such woman or girl might, prior to the passage of this act, have been sentenced to said State prison.

SEC. 14. As soon as the Penal Department of the Institution created by this act shall be ready for the reception of inmates, it shall be the duty of the Warden of said State Prison, upon the order of the Governor, to transfer and convey to the Institution created by this act, all the female convicts who may be then confined in said prison, and deliver them to the Superintendent of said institution, with a certified statement in writing, signed by such Warden, setting forth the name of each convict, the court by which, and the offense of, and for which she was convicted and sentenced, the date of the sentence, the term of the court at which sentence was pronounced, and the term for which such convict was sentenced; which certified statement in writing shall be sufficient authority for the confinement of such convict in the institution created by this act, for the portion of the term of such convict which may be and remain unexpired at the time when she shall be transferred to said Institution as aforesaid.

SEC. 15. When the Penal Department of said institution shall be ready for the reception of inmates as aforesaid, the Governor may, as to any or all of the female convicts who may then be confined as aforesaid in said State Prison, instead of making an order for their transfer as aforesaid, commute the sentences of said convicts, or any or either of them, by substituting imprisonment in the Penal Department of said Institution for the residue of the term for which they may have been respectively sentenced, or for any less period of time.

SEC. 16. After the Penal Department of said Institution shall have been proclaimed open for the reception of female convicts as hereinbefore provided, it shall not be lawful for any court to sentence any female convict to the State Prison upon conviction of any crime, but thereafter every female convict shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the Penal Department of the Institution created by this act, and the term of imprisonment for which such female convict may be sentenced shall be any period of time for which she might, on conviction, have been sentenced to the State Prison, at and prior to the passage of this act.

SEC. 17. If at any time the Penal Department of said Institution shall become so filled with female convicts that no more can be received therein for the time being, nor until it shall be enlarged or relieved of some of its inmates, then the Governor shall proclaim the fact, and after such proclamation any court may sentence a female convict over the age of fifteen years to the State Prison to the same extent and in the same manner as if this act had never been passed, and any female convict so sentenced may at any time thereafter, when she can be received in the Penal Department of the Institution created by this act, be transferred thereto and imprisoned therein in either of the modes hereinbefore provided for.

SEC. 18. Nothing in the provisions of this act contained shall be so construed as to prevent any court, upon the conviction of any woman or any girl over fifteen years of age, of any criminal offense, from sentencing such convict to imprisonment in the county jail of the proper county under the provisions of any law in force in this State prior to and at the time of the taking effect of this act.

SEC. 19. Whenever said Institution shall have been proclaimed to be open for the reception of girls in the Reformatory Department thereof, it shall be lawful for said Board of Managers to receive into their care and management in said Reformatory Department, girls under the age of fifteen years, who may be committed to their custody in either of the following modes, to wit:

First. When committed by any Judge of a Circuit or Common Pleas Court, either in term time or in vacation, on complaint and due proof by the parent or guardian, that by reason of her incorrigible or vicious conduct she has rendered her control beyond the power of such parent or guardian and made it manifestly requisite that from regard to the future welfare of such infant and for the protection of society she should be placed under such guardianship.

Second. When such infant shall be committed by such Judge as aforesaid, upon complaint by any citizen, and due proof of such complaint, that such infant is a proper subject for the guardianship of said Institution, in consequence of her vagrancy or incorrigibility or vicious conduct, and that from moral depravity or otherwise of her parent or guardian, in whose custody she may be, such parent or guardian is incapable or unwilling to exercise the proper care or discipline over such incorrigible or vicious infant.

Third. When such infant shall be committed by such Judge as aforesaid, on complaint and due proof thereof, by the Township Trustee of the township where such infant resides, that such infant is destitute of a suitable home and of adequate means of obtaining an honest living, or that she is in danger of being brought up to lead an idle and immoral life.

SEC. 20. All commitments to the Penal Department made under the provisions of this act shall be until the infants committed respectively attain the age of eighteen years; and all commitments to the Reformatory Department until they respectively attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner discharged from either department by authority of the Board of Managers, or otherwise, as elsewhere provided in this act.

SEC. 21. If any girl under the age of fifteen years shall, under existing laws, or under those which may hereafter be enacted, be tried by any court of competent jurisdiction for any criminal offense for which she might, on conviction, be sentenced for any period of time to be imprisoned in the proper county jail, it shall be competent for the court or jury by which the case may be tried, at their discretion, on conviction, to substitute confinement in the Reformatory Department of the Institution created by this act for imprisonment in the county jail, and such confinement shall be until the infant attains the age of eighteen years, unless sooner lawfully discharged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 22. If any girl, under the age of fifteen years, shall be accused before any grand jury of any crime or misdemeanor, and the charge is supported by evidence sufficient to put the accused upon trial, the grand jurors may, in their discretion, instead of finding an indictment against the accused, make a return to the Court that it appears to them that the accused is a suitable person to be committed to the guardianship of the Reformatory Department of the Institution created by this act, and the Court may thereupon order such commitment, until the infant shall attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner discharged as aforesaid, if satisfied from evidence adduced that such commitment ought to be made: Provided, however, That the production of evidence may be waived by the parent or guardian.

SEC. 23. If any girl, under the age of fifteen years, shall be arraigned for trial before any court of competent jurisdiction, charged with the violation of any criminal law of this State, the Judge of such court may, with the consent of the accused, arrest at any stage of the cause any further proceedings on the part of the prosecution, and commit the accused to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, until she shall attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner lawfully discharged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 24. Whenever any girl under the age of fifteen years shall be imprisoned to await her trial on any charge punishable with imprisonment, such girl may be brought before the proper Circuit or Common Pleas Judge, in term time or vacation, on a writ of habeas corpus, and shall be entitled to a private examination and trial before such Judge with a view to the question whether such infant ought to be committed to said Institution. Only the parties to the case and the parents or guardian of the accused shall be admitted to such examination, unless one of the parents, the guardian, or the legal representatives of the accused shall demand a public trial; in which case all proceedings shall be in the usual manner. And upon such hearing it shall be competent for such Judge to make an order committing the accused to the Reformatory Department of said Institution until she shall attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner lawfully discharged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 25. Whenever any infant under the age of fifteen years shall be committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution under the provisions of this act, the order of commitment shall be signed by the Judge by whom it is made, and authenticated by the Clerk of the proper court under the seal of the court, and such order shall state the name and age of the infant and the section of this act under which she may be committed, without setting forth or mentioning the offense with which she may have been charged, and no other or further record of the proceedings shall be made unless demanded by the infant, or her parents or guardian. If, however, there shall be a regular trial and conviction under the twenty-first section of this act, the usual record shall be made, and in such cases a certified copy of the judgment shall constitute the order of commitment.

SEC. 26. When a commitment shall be made under either of the specifications of section 19 of this act, the order of commitment shall also specify under which of the clauses or specifications of said section such order is made.

SEC. 27. The Board of Managers of said Institution may provide by general regulations for the discharge of girls committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, under any section or provision of this act, such discharge to be made by the Superintendent and with the approval of the Board.

SEC. 28. Any person who may be committed to or confined in either department of said Institution and who may escape therefrom may be arrested and returned to said Institution by any officer or citizen on the written order or request of the Superintendent or Board of Managers.

SEC. 29. The Superintendent of said Institution shall have power to place any girl committed to the Reformatory Department thereof at any employment for account of the Institution, or otherwise, and cause her to be instructed in such branches of useful knowledge as such Superintendent may think proper, and shall also have power to bind out such infant, with her consent, during her minority, and may execute indentures of apprenticeship for such infant, which shall have the like force and effect as other indentures of apprenticeship made under the laws of this State, but every indenture of apprenticeship so made, before the delivery thereof, shall be approved by the Board of Managers of said Institution, which approval shall be indorsed on the indenture and signed by the President of the Board, and a record of such approval shall be made in the minutes of the business transactions of the Board; and in case any girl so apprenticed shall prove untrustworthy or unreformed, the Superintendent may permit her to be returned to the Institution to be held in the same manner as before any such apprenticeship, whereupon the indenture may be canceled by order of the Board; and if such infant shall have an unsuitable master or mistress, the Superintendent may, with the approval of the Board, take her back into said Institution with or without the consent of such master or mistress, and thereupon the indenture shall be canceled. All indentures so made shall be filed and kept in said Institution, and it shall not be necessary to file or record them in any other office or place, but the master or mistress of any girl so apprenticed shall, on request, be entitled to a copy of her indenture.

SEC. 30. If any girl shall be committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, upon the complaint or at the instance of her parent or guardian, the cost of transporting such girl to the Institution, and the cost of her subsistence and clothing, shall be paid by such parent or guardian, unless such parent is unable, by reason of his or her poverty, to pay the same, or unless such guardian has no funds, effects or estate of such infant, out of which the same could be paid. The order of commitment shall, in every such case, state whether the parent is able to pay the cost of the subsistence and clothing of the infant, or whether the guardian has any estate or effects of the infant out of which such cost can be paid. The Board of Managers shall, in every such case, estimate and fix the amount to be paid, and the same shall be paid to the Superintendent quarterly in advance.

SEC. 31. Said Board of Managers shall, with the approval of the Governor, estimate and determine, as near as may be, the actual expense per annum of clothing and subsisting an infant committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, and include a statement of such estimated price in each annual report, one-half of the cost of keeping, according to such estimates, together with the entire cost of conveying each infant to the Institution, shall be paid by the county from which such infant may be committed, except in cases where the cost of transporting such infant to the Institution, and her subsistence and clothing, is chargeable to her parent or guardian, under the last preceding section.

SEC. 32. The expenses which any county may be liable to pay for the clothing and subsistence of any girl committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, under the provisions of this act, shall be paid by the Board of County Commissioners of such county into the State Treasury, on a certified statement in detail of the amount due therefor from such county being transmitted by the Superintendent of the Institution through the Treasurer of State to the Auditor of the proper county.

SEC. 33. And whenever an inmate of the Penal Department, by continuous good conduct, gives evidence of permanent reformation, she may, in like manner, be transferred to the Reformatory Department on probation, and may be continued therein so long as her conduct may, in the opinion of the Board of Managers and Superintendent, justify it.

SEC. 34. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, the sum of $50,000 is hereby appropriated, to be paid out of the State Treasury upon the warrants of the Governor: Provided, That no building shall be erected under this act, which shall exceed in cost to the State the sum hereby appropriated. * * *

SEC. 35. If a parent, guardian or master of any infant committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, or any person occupying the position of parent or guardian in fact, or any relation by blood or marriage not more remote than first cousin to such infant, shall feel aggrieved by the commitment of such infant to said Institution, he may make written application to the Board of Managers of said Institution for the discharge of such infant, which application shall be filed with the Superintendent, who shall inform the Managers thereof, and the same shall be heard and determined by said Managers at such time as they shall appoint for that purpose, not later than the next regular meeting of the Board. Such applications shall state the grounds of the applicants' claim to the custody of the infant and the reasons for claiming such custody. Within ten days after the hearing of such application the Board of Managers shall make and announce their decision thereon, and if they shall be of the opinion that the welfare of such infant would be promoted by granting the application, they shall make an order to that effect; otherwise they shall deny the application. The applicant may, upon the denial of the application, by first giving security for the payment of all costs (the security to be approved by the Clerk of the proper court), commence an action in the Circuit Court or Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the Institution may be situated, for the recovery of the custody of such infant against the managers of the Institution, and the complaint in said action shall state the facts and manner of the commitment, and the making of the plaintiff's application to the managers for the custody of such infant, and the denial of such application by said managers, as well as the ground upon which the plaintiff relies for the recovery of the custody of such infant. Said action shall be prosecuted in like manner as other civil actions, and the costs thereof shall be paid by the plaintiff, without reference to the result of the action, unless the court shall state in the judgment that the refusal of the managers to grant the application of the plaintiff was plainly unreasonable, or that the original commitment was manifestly unnecessary and improper.

SEC. 36. Whenever any female under the age of fifteen years shall be sentenced by any court of competent jurisdiction to imprisonment in any county jail, it shall be lawful for the Governor, on the application of such infant, her parent, guardian, or any other person, to commute her punishment by substituting therefor the commitment of such infant to the Reformatory Department of the Institution created by this act, during the minority of such infant, unless sooner lawfully discharged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 37. Said Managers shall be allowed for their services the sum of one hundred and sixty dollars per annum, payable quarterly on the warrant of the Governor, out of the Treasury of the State, and no traveling expenses or other allowances shall be paid to said Managers, or any of them.

SEC. 38. It shall be the duty of said Board of Managers to provide teachers, and as far as practicable instruct the inmates of said Institution in reading, writing and arithmetic.

SEC. 39. It shall be the duty of the Governor from time to time, as he may deem necessary, to appoint a Board of Visitors to visit and inspect said Institution, and examine as to the treatment, employment and condition of its inmates, and the management of its affairs, including the expenditures thereof; and to enable them to do so, the Board of Managers and Superintendent of the Institution shall afford such Board of Visitors all needful facilities to enable them thoroughly to perform their duty, including an inspection of the books, records and accounts of the Institution. Such Board of Visitors shall consist of one man and two women, and at least two visitations shall be made each year, and the result thereof shall be reported to the Governor, but such visitations shall be made without any cost or expense to the State.

CHAPTER L.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled "An act to establish a female prison and reformatory institution for girls and women, and to provide for the organization and government thereof, and making appropriations;" approved May 13, 1869.

fifty thousand dollars, for the purpose of completing and finishing the building already erected for said Institution, and for fencing and putting in order the grounds appurtenant to said building; the said appropriation to be drawn from the treasury in the manner prescribed by the original act, to which this is a supplement.

SEC. 2. Whenever said Institution or any portion or department thereof is ready to be furnished, the Board of Managers thereof shall present to the Auditor of State an itemized estimate of the articles needed for that purpose, with the estimated cost of each item or article, which estimate or statement shall be verified by the oath of the President of said Board, and upon the presentation of said estimate or statement to the Auditor of State, said Auditor shall, as soon as practicable, notify the Governor, Secretary and Treasurer of State of the filing of such statement, and if the majority of said officers shall be of the opinion that the proposed expenditure or some part thereof is necessary for the proper furnishing of said Institution, or any part or department thereof, they shall direct, in writing, the Auditor of State to draw his warrant for the amount so estimated for, or such part or portion thereof as they may approve, on the Treasurer of State, who shall pay the same to the President of said Board, or to his order, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. As it is almost impossible, without knowing the number of inmates that will be in said Institution, and the number of officers that will be necessary to manage and govern its affairs, the current expenses of said Institution shall be estimated for, allowed, and drawn from the treasury as follows, viz.:

At the commencement of each month the Superintendent of the Institution shall prepare and verify by his oath an estimated itemized statement in writing of the amounts that will be required to meet the current expenses of such Institution during such month, and present the same to the Auditor of State, who shall notify the Governor, Secretary and Treasurer of the State thereof, and if a majority of said officers shall approve and allow said estimate, or a part thereof, they shall direct in writing the Auditor of State to draw his warrant on the Treasurer of State for the amount which may be so allowed by said State officers, or by a majority of them, and said Treasurer shall pay said warrant out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. Every such estimated itemized statement shall set forth the number of inmates in each of the departments of the Institution, and also the number of officers and persons employed therein.

SEC. 4. The Board of Managers and Superintendent of said Institution shall, at the end of every period of six months, commencing with the first money which may be drawn from the treasury on any estimate made under either of the previous sections of this act, make an itemized report of the expenditure of the money which may have been so drawn from the treasury under this act, and the Auditor shall carefully examine such report, and if in his opinion any money shall have been improperly expended by the purchase of unnecessary articles, or by paying too much therefor, or otherwise, said Auditor shall immediately notify the Governor, Secretary and Treasurer of State, who, in conjunction with such Auditor, shall immediately proceed to investigate the matter, and in accordance with the decision of a majority of these officers the account shall be audited: Provided, however, That before rendering an adverse decision upon any such account, or any part thereof, they shall notify the disbursing officer, and allow him to present such explanations or adduce such testimony as he may desire in regard to the matter, and they shall have the same power to summon and require the attendance of witnesses as are given to the Circuit Courts of this State.

SEC. 5. The Auditor of State shall keep and preserve a full record of all the proceedings of said officers of the State under the foregoing provisions of this act.

SEC. 6. An emergency is hereby declared to exist for the immediate taking effect of this act; therefore, the same shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Such court shall not adopt such child if it have a father or mother living, unless such father or mother appear in open court and give consent thereto: Provided, That if such petitioner show, by two competent witnesses, that the residence of such father or mother be unknown, then such court may adopt such child: And provided further, That if such child be, at the time of filing and hearing such petition, an inmate of the House of Refuge for Juvenile Offenders, or of the Indiana Reformatory Institution for Women and Girls, committed thereto by law, for other reason than the conviction for crime or incorrigibility, such petition may be filed in any Circuit or Superior Court of this State, and upon the filing of the written consent of the Board of Control or Board of Managers of such institutions, to such adoption, then such court may adopt such child.

MANAGER'S REPORT.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., October 31, 1894.

To the HON. CLAUDE MATTHEWS,
Governor of Indiana:

YOUR EXCELLENCY—We have the honor to submit the twenty-third report of the Indiana Reform School for Girls and Woman's Prison, together with the reports of the Superintendent, Physician and Bookkeeper, which report gives the financial, sanitary and moral condition of the Institution in complete detail.

On November 3, 1893, Miss Margaretta S. Elder, who had been connected with the institution for nearly eight years as Secretary and Bookkeeper, resigned her position. On account of her long and valuable services the Board granted her a six months' leave of absence, but her death occurred December 10, 1893. Miss Anna Dunlop was appointed to the position December 13, 1893.

The Superintendent, Miss Keely; Physician, Dr. Stockton, and Secretary, Miss Dunlop, were on March 4, 1894, reappointed to their several positions.

The twelve regular meetings of the Board have been held on the first Wednesday of the month, besides twelve called meetings and as many visits as the business required.

In addition, and for the benefit of the institution, the Superintendent and two members of the Board were sent as delegates to the National Conference of Charities and Corrections held in Nashville, Tenn. in May, 1894.

Furthermore, the entire Board, with the Superintendent and Secretary, attended the State Convention of Charities and Corrections held in Terre Haute in February 1894, where papers were read by a member of the Board and the Superintendent.

In this connection, it gives us great pleasure and gratification to repeat from our report of last year, in contrast with the showing of the Secretary of the Board of State Charities, who calls attention to the enormous increase in male commitments to the Prisons North and South: "The commitments have not increased in proportion to the growth of the population of the State. On the contrary, fewer commitments have been received in both departments this year than for many years past."

We feel safe in stating that the moral and physical condition of the institution was never better than to-day, or the results more apparent, and in this connection we wish to express our obligations to the Superintendent, who has so ably administered the affairs of the institution, and to all the subordinate officers and employes.

We have kept up insurance upon buildings and furnishings, as in previous years, to the amount of $38,950. Only such ordinary repairs have been made as were required in a sanitary way and for the preservation of the buildings, at an expense of $5,531.90.

As required by section 6192, R. S. 1881, the Board has estimated and determined the "actual expense per annum of clothing and subsisting an infant committed to the Reform School for Girls," and has fixed the amount at $168, the counties to pay one-half of this amount.

There was reported to the Treasurer of State during the fiscal year from this source	$11,398 02
The earnings and receipts paid to the State Treasurer quarterly have amounted to	3,092 07
Thus we have a credit of	$14,490 09
Leaving a net cost to the State of	30,509 91
Total amount expended	$45,000 00

As stated in last report we carried over unpaid bills for current expenses, $5,657 23. These have been paid out of the appropriation for 1893–94, and we close the year with no indebtedness.

NEEDS.

We would respectfully ask that the regular appropriation of $45,000 be continued for maintenance and repairs for the two years 1895–96 and 1896–97. The boilers have been in use for sixteen years and are unsafe. Due regard for life and property demands that these shall be replaced by new ones. Before placing new boilers we feel it imperative to remove the boiler-house from its present dangerous position, as we have been advised by competent authority that there should be a boiler and engine-house constructed entirely removed from the buildings. We have taken estimates as follows:

For new building, smoke-stack, tunnel	$6,935 00
For boilers, steam fitting, etc., complete	8,000 00
Total	$14,935 00

It is the intention of the management to utilize the present boiler house, which is situated midway between the north wings of the Prison and Reform School, for a department for incorrigible girls who are unfit to be placed with the family at once, or girls returned from ticket-of-leave; but this will be done out of the regular maintenance and repair appropriation.

The entire business of the institution is at present transacted in one office room, subject to all the interruptions and annoyances of the miscellaneous business of the house. We feel that the time has come for us to ask for an appropriation for the building of a four-room addition to the administration building. We have taken an estimate,

Addition to administration building	$7,750 00
Total special appropriation needed	$22,685 00

We desire to express our obligations to Your Excellency for the prompt attention so courteously given to every request, as well as for the interest shown in the successful management of the institution.

Respectfully submitted,

LAURA REAM,
CLAIRE A. WALKER,
ISABELLA W. ROACHE,
Managers.

ANNA DUNLOP,
Secretary.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

OFFICE REFORM SCHOOL FOR GIRLS AND WOMAN'S PRISON.
October 31, 1894.

To the Board of Managers:

LADIES—I respectfully submit to you the Twenty-third Annual Report of the institution, the same being my ninth annual report as Superintendent.

For all items of expenditure and receipts I would refer you to the exhibits and tables of the book-keeper.

The year passed without serious disturbance of any kind, while the progress made in both school and industrial departments has been satisfactory.

CHANGES.

A greater number of changes than usual have occurred in our official force during the year, caused by death, continued ill health in some, a desire to change in others, but each vacancy has been filled without difficulty or delay and we have at this time as faithful and earnest a corps of officers, teachers and employes as can be found in any institution.

Miss Margaretta S. Elder, who had served the institution for eight years in the double capacity of Secretary and Book-keeper, died on the 10th of December, 1893. Miss Anna Dunlop, who had held the same position for ten years, and had been appointed to fill out the unexpired term, was continued through the year.

Mrs. Malvina Aldrich resigned her position as prison matron November 10, when Mrs. Abigail Broadrup took charge temporarily. On the 7th of May, Mrs. Exie E Hamilton, who had served of assistant matron and laundry officer for seven years, was promoted to the position. Mrs. F. E. Jewett filled the vacancy thus occasioned for five months, and was then succeeded by Miss A. E. Davis.

Miss M. J. Crozier took entire charge of the administration building upon the sick leave of Mrs. Fannie Hiteshue, remaining until September 1, 1894, to be succeeded by Miss Emma Jameson, of this city. Miss Mary Patterson was appointed teacher of Gymnastics and Physical Culture March 1, upon the resignation of Miss Ryder. Two former officers, Mrs. Anna Gadd and Miss Alice Barnhart, have served us faithfully as supplies when needed during the illness or temporary absence of regular officers. Mr. O. B. Hickson supplied for the employes during their vacations.

Notwithstanding these changes the work has moved right along with smoothness and good spirit, and the atmosphere of the entire house is purer and better than at the beginning of the year.

The reformatory department, now called the Reform School for Girls, was opened September 12, 1873, by two girls being brought from the county jail to help clear away the rubbish and fit the house for occupancy. One of these girls, now a happy wife and mother, visited us during the year. She is a respectable citizen and a good neighbor.

Since then we have received and cared for	989	girls.

WOMAN'S PRISON.

The Woman's Prison, formerly the penal department, was opened October 8, 1873. Seventeen women having been brought on that date from the State Prison at Jeffersonville. Since that day there have been Committed by the Courts	548	women.

Our enrollment is as small, if not smaller, to-day than usual. Evidently we are not increasing in numbers—women are not growing worse—or, if so, they do not find their way into the Woman's Prison. Our work must be reformatory in its results, as we have comparatively few re-commitments. Girls from the Reform School are seldom found in the penal department.

Three very grave questions confront us to-day.

First. Would greater good have been accomplished during these twenty-one years if these two institutions, or these two departments of one institution, had not been built upon the same ground and placed under the same management?

Second. Is it not a great injustice to these girls and children of the Reform School to be so closely connected with the criminal classes?

Third. Should they be separated now?

Perhaps there is no one directly connected with the work who would not gladly hail the day when such a separation would take place, but just when or how best to bring it about is a perplexing question and one too great for our busy hands and brains to handle. We know great good has been done. The moral tone of the institution is very gratifying and the question, "Could more be accomplished for either class by separation than is being done?" is one that we are not prepared to answer. Both departments are reformatory in effect, in work and in results. The same objection to two separate institutions exists to-day that existed when the bill was presented to the Legislature asking for a reformatory prison for women, namely—the number of women committed for crime is too small to keep up a separate institution. There are many arguments on both sides of the question. That the greatest good may be accomplished is the one thing to be desired. As the institution stands every effort is made to keep the different classes separate. Those of us who are in the heart of the work of reform are too anxious for the very best good to come to those for whom we labor to even try to hinder any change that would bring about greater results in the reformation and uplifting of these people. At the same time we are so confident of the good done each day, and see so constantly the change for the better in many of these lives that we can not be thankful enough for the great opportunities for reform that have been so generously granted to these girls and women.

UNDESIRABLE COMMITMENTS.

A girl with either incipient or developed scrofula should never be admitted to a reform school; neither should one afflicted with epilepsy or a feeble mind. Girls returned from ticket-of-leave for bad conduct should not be admitted into the school proper until they have earned the privileges of the school by a month's good conduct. I would suggest that as soon as practicable a separate department be created for all such, in a separate building or an annex to this building.

I would also ask that as soon as possible some provision be make by which girls out on ticket-of-leave be visited at least twice a year by some one connected with the institution. During the year we have been greatly helped in this respect by the visiting committee of the charity organizations in this city and in Terre Haute, while in other places some member of the W. C. T. U. has visited homes and reported to us. Members of orphan asylum boards have also given us great assistance. Terre Haute is ever on the alert through the helping hand of Mr. S. B. Davis, and Mrs. Kate Haines, of this city, is ever ready to answer our call.

Although tickets-of-leave must be returned once a month for renewal, yet we find that after a time parents or guardians grow careless, and we have even found that false reports are often given.

Fourteen girls have been granted tickets of leave during the year, and in no previous year have our girls made better records or given greater satisfaction. Many of these are teachers in Sunday-school and successful workers in young people's societies.

SCHOOLS.

The girls are required to attend school half of each day. A careful record of conduct as well as scholarship is kept. Monthly examinations are held, and with a great number of girls much pride is taken in these grades. Besides reading, writing, spelling and arithmetic required by law, they study history, physiology and geography, while oral lessons are given in grammar. Careful attention is given to letter-writing and composition. Frequent abstracts of sermons and lectures are creditably written, and even book reviews could be indulged in.

PRIMARY SCHOOL.

This school is composed of the children and younger girls; but many of these are far in advance of the older girls in their studies. A new room was fitted up for this school with single desks, blackboards and recitation seats, thus giving to the children additional helps in obtaining an education. During the summer months a class in clay modeling was taught by Miss Patterson. Even the youngest children took great interest in tracing leaves and flowers and moulding fruits and ornaments out of the pliable clay. The class was taught in the yard.

PRISON SCHOOL.

A night school is held in the woman's prison during the winter months. Old women have learned to read and write here, but some have no desire to learn, and the time spent in trying to teach them is almost thrown away. The younger women and girls who find their way here are generally interested in learning all they can.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL.

The best helps in preparing the Sabbath-school lessons are furnished both departments. The International Series is used, Lesson Leaves, Picture Papers and Blackboard Lessons. Special and general reviews so fix these lessons in the minds of the girls that when they go out into other Sunday-schools they are said to be the best scholars and are frequently employed as teachers.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Our chapel service consists of opening exercises by the entire family, followed by singing by the officers and school. Under the excellent leadership of Miss Clara Anderson our singing has greatly improved. Ministers from the city pulpits preach for us. We are not sectarian, so we listen attentively to one denomination and another. All who come to help us in heavenly things come with the one great theme, "Salvation through Christ." Others have helped us in concerts, lectures and entertainments. Many kind friends have sent us magazines and illustrated papers. The Flower Mission, on June 9, was indeed a mission of pleasure to all. Our own Easter services were the best that we have ever held. Thanksgiving and Christmas were brimful of good things. While seemingly shut in from the outside world, the girls and women of this institution are up with the times, and no holiday passes without its appropriate exercises. A beautiful service was held in the chapel by the members of the State Convention of Christian Endeavor workers, held recently in our city, the Sunshine Club, from Evansville, giving an additional charm by their sweet music on guitars and mandolins. The service will long be remembered. The State Convention of the W. C. T. U. workers also visited us in great numbers, speaking words of hopefulness and good cheer, and inviting all to drink freely from the cup of salvation. We always gladly welcome the people of our own State to our Home.

HEALTH.

The general health of the family has been good. We have had no sickness of any consequence and but one death, that of Lydia B. Wise, of the Reform School, age 17 years, who never had been strong or fully developed either in body or mind. The sanitary condition of the house is excellent. With the careful supervision of physician and hospital officer, and the plentiful supply of fresh and well prepared food, together with regular hours and out-door exercises, we have been enabled to preserve an enviable state of health.

INDUSTRIES.

Our industries have remained unchanged, and we still find that there is no greater blessing than work. It is a powerful factor in building up and reforming characters whose former environment and habits have given the wrong trend to their natures. There the moments fly so much faster and the pulse beats quicker while the heart grows lighter and life puts on a new phase, when we learn first to imitate and then to create something of our own. It is a good thing to know how to read well; it is very pleasant to know how to write well; it is equally pleasant, as well as important, to know how to work well. We continue to do every kind of work that ever falls to woman's lot to do, under faithful and competent industrial teachers. We try to make these girls and women self-supporting as domestics, nurses, dress-makers, and in family sewing. Laundry work is always remunerative, and how many ladies of our land are now making all their pin money and perhaps much more by baking bread, pies and cakes, as well as the making of jellies, preserves and pickles for our industrial unions. To be able to patch and darn beautifully is as great an accomplishment as to embroider beautifully, and perhaps, in many families, it is more important. The time spent in the industrial departments is just as important as the time spent in the school room, but we do not undervalue a good common school education, and even more than that if opportunity offers.

LAUNDRY WORK.

We have not done as much work in our two laundries as formerly; the new women received have not been as able-bodied for such work as in some other years. They come broken in health, and it often takes months to get them into even a fair physical condition. While all work none are overworked. Growing girls must be carefully watched lest their ambition to learn how to do all kinds of work leads them into going beyond their strength. Our aim and effort has been to have the work of the house given the time and care more than the outside work, hence we have not earned as much as in some previous years, but have done more and better housework.

The pretty industry of chair-seating has been curtailed by hard times and the shutting down of factories. Besides work for city patrons, we are doing some work for Parry Manufacturing Co. A large number of quilts have been pieced and quilted by the children and girls, and great improvement has been made in crochet and fancy work under the tuition of Miss Emma Holmes.

PAROLES AND PARDONS.

One life prisoners, Ellen Walton, of Dubois County, was paroled, and one, Susan Smith, of Wayne County, was pardoned by the Governor. One life prisoner, Jane Williams, of Washington County, who had been insane for twenty-five years, also Cora Massley, of Hamilton County, were paroled by the Governor and transferred to the Insane Hospital. Ella Kemp, of Rush County, serving a five years' sentence, was paroled by the Governor.

IMPROVEMENTS.

We have had a very busy year in the way of repairs and improvements, all of which were greatly needed. To improve the sanitary condition of the building, all the old, damp brick floors in the basement of the Reform School were removed and $\frac{7}{8}$-inch oak floors laid over 2-inch water-proof joice filled with cement. A store room was changed in front cellar, the room plastered, a corrugated iron ceiling and ceiling heater put in and the room fitted up for an extra dining room; corrugated iron ceilings in three kitchens and under two stairways; box stairway torn out of middle hall, open stairway put in with iron spandrel on first floor; stairway removed from girls collecting room, floor finished and ceiling covered; new sink in girls' kitchen; outside door and open cellar door; a flour room partitioned off of the milk cellar, with oak floor laid in cement and corrugated iron partition; for security against fire, seven guard doors have been put in girls' hospital and eight iron doors in prison hospital and other parts of the house; a bath and toilet room has been partitioned off of a second story room in the administration building; a hydrant has been put in the west court for fire and sprinkling purposes; natural gas connection made with lodge; the boilers and flues were thoroughly over-hauled and put in fair order, but more extensive improvements will have to be made another year for the safety of the buildings and family; two brick ovens were built, one in each kitchen; a new range set in the officers' kitchen; all main steam pipes in the basement and other exposed places were covered with asbestos fire-proof covering; the fourth floor, which had been left in an unfinished condition, was partitioned off into two sleeping rooms and liberal corridors, while the west end was thrown into a large gallery to the chapel for the use of the prisoners; this is one of the greatest improvements, as it gives us the entire chapel floor for the Reform School, and at the same time does not cut the prisoners off from the Sunday afternoon chapel services; six dormer windows were put in and a floor laid in an unused attic.

FURNISHINGS.

Two new rolling top desks have been placed in the Superintendent's office; new carpets purchased for two bedrooms and upper front hall and stairway; bedroom suit for Superintendent's room; drinking fountain for connecting hall with ice box below; chandeliers and side lights in the chapel; one dozen fire extinguishers of latest pattern; three dozen single desks, with four back seats and two recitation seats, for primary schoolroom; new black-boards for same, and all other black-boards repaired and repainted.

To all the kind friends who have helped us by words of appreciation, or by concerts or entertainments given, by gifts of magazines and illustrated papers, we return our thanks.

To our large-hearted and most excellent Governor, Claude Matthews, who has been of greatest help to us in times of need, and to the Board of State Charities, whose sympathy and confidence have made us strong, we extend our heart felt gratitude.

To you, as a Board of Managers, with your ever helpful suggestions and kindly council, your constant watchfulness and oversight, together with the combined efforts and faithfulness of all employed, we owe all the success which may be revealed in that great day when the Husbandman of all the world shall come to gather in the harvest.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH F. KEELY,
Superintendent.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

LADIES—I herewith submit the report of the Hospital Department of the institution for the year ending October 31, 1894:

The prompt attention and efficient service rendered in nursing the sick, the good sanitary condition of the institution, the excellent quality and generous supply of food and comfortable clothing obviates the necessity of a lengthy report. There have been but few cases of serious illness.

In the Reform School Department there were several cases of tonsilitis and influenza; a few cases of rheumatism; all were unusually mild in character. There were a number of cases of slight ailments, such as indigestion, gastritis, constipation, and slight nervous disturbances resulting from menstrual derangements or due to the age of puberity. There were five cases of dermatitis, which occurred during attacks of catarrhal fever; three cases of asthma; three of erysipelas; one of pleura-pneumonia; two patients were suffering from syphilitic infection when admitted; one case of enlarged cervical glands with scrofulous tendency (she was not permitted to remain in the institution.) One case of chronic nephritis; one case of bronchitis, followed by phthisic pulmonalis; this patient was taken charge of by her friends. There were two cases of tuberculosis. One of them was permitted to go to her home; the other died January 10, 1894, the only death that occurred in this department. There were sixty-five in the hospital during the year.

In the Woman's Prison there were a number of mild attacks of illness, consisting of tonsilitis, indigestion and other gastro-intestinal disorders. A few cases of rheumatism, influenza, bronchitis and chronic malaria. Several were suffering from syphilis when admitted. One case of melancholia with suicidal tendency; two cases of insanity—one of them was sent to the Hospital for the Insane, the other still remains an inmate of the institution. There were three cases of general debility, one of them also suffered from chronic cystitis and was seriously ill for several weeks. There was one case of indolent ulcer on the tibial surface of the right limb; one case when admitted was addicted to the habitual use of morphia; several have received special treatment for various pelvic and uterine derangements.

There were thirty-four in the hospital during the year. No deaths occurred in this department.

At the present time the health of the institution is good.

Respectfully,

SARAH STOCKTON,
Physician.

The Board of Managers shall, with the approval of the Governor, prepare and adopt plans for the grounds, buildings and fixtures necessary and proper for such an Institution, within the limits of the appropriation hereinafter made, and if practicable, the plans shall be so arranged that the buildings can be enlarged or added to without injury to their symmetry or usefulness, and the said Board may, with the like approval of the Governor, make and execute all necessary contracts for the construction of such buildings and fixtures, and the improvement of the grounds, according to the plans which may have been so adopted.

SEC. 7. Said Board of Managers may, with the approval of the Governor, appoint a suitable Superintendent of said Institution, and all necessary subordinates, not exceeding a number to be fixed by the Governor, and fix their respective salaries, and shall have power, with the like approval, to make and enforce all such rules, regulations, ordinances and by-laws, for the government and discipline of said Institution, and for the admission of girls into the reformatory department thereof, as they may deem just and proper. The Superintendent and all the subordinate officers of said Institution shall be females: Provided, however, That if a married woman shall be appointed Superintendent, or to any subordinate position, the husband of such appointee may, with the consent of the Board, reside in the Institution, and may be assigned such duties or employment as the Board of Managers may prescribe.

SEC. 8. Before entering upon the discharge of her duties the Superintendent shall give bond to the State of Indiana in the sum of ten thousand dollars or over, with security to be approved by said Board of Managers, conditioned for the faithful performance of her duties as such Superintendent, and that she will faithfully account for all moneys, property and effects entrusted to her as such, and shall take an oath or affirmation to discharge the duties of her said office with fidelity, and if said Superintendent shall be a married woman such bond shall be executed by her husband and her sureties, but need not be signed by herself.

SEC. 9. The Superintendent shall reside at the Institution, and shall have the charge and custody of the buildings and other property thereof, and of the inmates who may be committed to both departments of the Institution, and shall govern them in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Board of Managers may prescribe, and shall employ such methods of discipline as will, as far as possible, reform the characters, preserve the health, promote regular improvement in the studies and industrial employment of the inmates of the Institution, and secure to them fixed habits of industry, morality and religion, but the rules, regulations and discipline of each department of the Institution shall be adopted to the character of the inmates thereof.

SEC. 10. No manager, officer or employe of said Institution shall be personally interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract, purchase or sale, made by or to, or on behalf of, said Institution; or in any business carried on for, or on behalf of, said Institution; and all contracts, purchases or sales, made in violation of this section shall be deemed and held null and void; and all money paid to such managers, officers or employes, or to any person for their benefit, in whole or in part consideration of such purchase, contract or sale, may be recovered back by a civil action, in the name of the State of Indiana, against such manager, officer or employe, or against any person acting in his or their behalf; and it is hereby made the duty of the Governor and the Board of Managers, upon satisfactory proof of such interest, to immediately remove such manager, officer or employe so offending, and to report the facts to the Attorney-General, who shall take such legal steps in the premises as he may deem expedient.

SEC. 11. Said Board of Managers shall, on or before the first day of January in each year after the Institution is open for the reception of inmates, make to the Governor a full and detailed report of their doings as such Managers, and of the receipts and expenditures of said Institution, with such other information relating to the condition of the Institution and its inmates, and the results attained, as may be deemed interesting or useful to the public, which report shall be communicated by the Governor to the General Assembly at the next succeeding session thereof.

SEC. 12. Whenever said Institution, or either department thereof, shall have been so far completed as to admit of the reception of inmates intended to be committed thereto, the Governor shall make due proclamation of the fact, and thereafter it shall be lawful for said Board of Managers to receive into their care, custody or guardianship, such inmates as may be committed or transferred to either of the departments of said Institution in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 13. The Penal Department of said Institution shall be used for the imprisonment, safe custody, and reformation of such women and girls as shall heretofore have been convicted of criminal offenses, and sentenced to the State's prison at Jeffersonville, and who are now undergoing imprisonment in that prison, in pursuance of such sentences, and also of such women and girls over the age of fifteen years who may hereafter be sentenced to imprisonment in the Penal Department of the Institution created by this act, upon conviction by any court of competent jurisdiction, of any crime for which such woman or girl might, prior to the passage of this act, have been sentenced to said State prison.

SEC. 14. As soon as the penal department of the Institution created by this act shall be ready for the reception of inmates, it shall be the duty of the Warden of said State prison, upon the order of the Governor, to transfer and convey to the Institution created by this act, all the female convicts who may be then confined in said prison, and deliver them to the Superintendent of said Institution, with a certified statement in writing, signed by such Warden, setting forth the name of each convict, the court by which, and the offense of, and for which she was convicted and sentenced, the date of the sentence, the term of the court at which sentence was pronounced, and the term for which such convict was sentenced; which certified statement in writing shall be sufficient authority for the confinement of such convict in the institution created by this act, for the portion of the term of such convict which may be and remain unexpired at the time when she shall be transferred to said Institution as aforesaid.

SEC. 15. When the Penal Department of said Institution shall be ready for the reception of inmates as aforesaid, the Governor may, as to any or all of the female convicts who may then be confined as aforesaid in said State Prison, instead of making an order for their transfer as aforesaid, commute the sentences of said convicts, or any or either of them, by substituting imprisonment in the Penal Department of said Institution for the residue of the term for which they may have been respectively sentenced, or for any less period of time.

SEC. 16. After the Penal Department of said Institution shall have been proclaimed open for the reception of female convicts as hereinbefore provided, it shall not be lawful for any court to sentence any female convict to the State Prison upon conviction of any crime, but thereafter every female convict shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the Penal Department of the Institution created by this act, and the term of imprisonment for which such female convict may be sentenced shall be any period of time for which she might, on conviction, have been sentenced to the State Prison, at and prior to the passage of this act.

SEC. 17. If at any time the Penal Department of said Institution shall become so filled with female convicts that no more can be received therein for the time being, nor until it shall be enlarged or relieved of some of its inmates, then the Governor shall proclaim the fact, and after such proclamation any court may sentence a female convict over the age of fifteen years to the State Prison to the same extent and in the same manner as if this act had never been passed, and any female convict so sentenced may at any time thereafter, when she can be received in the Penal Department of the Institution created by this act, be transferred thereto and imprisoned therein in either of the modes hereinbefore provided for.

SEC. 18. Nothing in the provisions of this act contained shall be so construed as to prevent any court, upon the conviction of any woman or any girl over fifteen years of age, of any criminal offense, from sentencing such convict to imprisonment in the county jail of the proper county under the provisions of any law in force in this State prior to and at the time of the taking effect of this act.

SEC. 19. Whenever said Institution shall have been proclaimed to be open for the reception of girls in the Reformatory Department thereof, it shall be lawful for said Board of Managers to receive into their care and management in said Reformatory Department, girls under the age of fifteen years, who may be committed to their custody in either of the following modes, to wit:

First. When committed by any Judge of a Circuit or Common Pleas Court, either in term time or in vacation, on complaint and due proof by the parent or guardian, that by reason of her incorrigible or vicious conduct she has rendered her control beyond the power of such parent or guardian and made it manifestly requisite that from regard to the future welfare of such infant and for the protection of society she should be placed under such guardianship.

Second. When such infant shall be committed by such Judge as aforesaid, upon complaint by any citizen, and due proof of such complaint, that such infant is a proper subject for the guardianship of said Institution, in consequence of her vagrancy or incorrigibility or vicious conduct, and that from moral depravity or otherwise of her parent or guardian, in whose custody she may be, such parent or guardian is incapable or unwilling to exercise the proper care or discipline over such incorrigible or vicious infant.

Third. When such infant shall be committed by such Judge as aforesaid, on complaint and due proof thereof, by the Township Trustee of the township where such infant resides, that such infant is destitute of a suitable home and of adequate means of obtaining an honest living, or that she is in danger of being brought up to lead an idle and immoral life.

SEC. 20. All commitments to the Penal Department made under the provisions of this act shall be until the infants committed respectively attain the age of eighteen years; and all commitments to the Reformatory Department until they respectively attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner discharged from either department by authority of the Board of Managers, or otherwise, as elsewhere provided in this act.

SEC. 21. If any girl under the age of fifteen years shall, under existing laws, or under those which may hereafter be enacted, be tried by any court of competent jurisdiction for any criminal offense for which she might, on conviction, be sentenced for any period of time to be imprisoned in the proper county jail, it shall be competent for the court or jury by which the case may be tried, at their discretion, on conviction, to substitute confinement in the Reformatory Department of the Institution created by this act for imprisonment in the county jail, and such confinement shall be until the infant attains the age of eighteen years, unless sooner lawfully discharged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 22. If any girl, under the age of fifteen years, shall be accused before any grand jury of any crime or misdemeanor, and the charge is supported by evidence sufficient to put the accused upon trial, the grand jurors may, in their discretion, instead of finding an indictment against the accused, make a return to the Court that it appears to them that the accused is a suitable person to be committed to the guardianship of the Reformatory Department of the Institution created by this act, and the Court may thereupon order such commitment, until the infant shall attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner discharged as aforesaid, if satisfied from evidence adduced that such commitment ought to be made: Provided, however, That the production of evidence may be waived by the parent or guardian.

SEC. 23. If any girl, under the age of fifteen years, shall be arraigned for trial before any court of competent jurisdiction, charged with the violation of any criminal law of this State, the Judge of such court may, with the consent of the accused, arrest at any stage of the cause any further proceedings on the part of the prosecution, and commit the accused to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, until she shall attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner lawfully discharged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 24. Whenever any girl under the age of fifteen years shall be imprisoned to await her trial on any charge punishable with imprisonment, such girl may be brought before the proper Circuit or Common Pleas Judge, in term time or vacation, on a writ of habeas corpus, and shall be entitled to a private examination and trial before such Judge with a view to the question whether such infant ought to be committed to said Institution. Only the parties to the case and the parents or guardian of the accused shall be admitted to such examination, unless one of the parents, the guardian, or the legal representatives of the accused shall demand a public trial; in which case all proceedings shall be in the usual manner. And upon such hearing it shall be competent for such Judge to make an order committing the accused to the Reformatory Department of said Institution until she shall attain the age of eighteen years, unless sooner lawfully discharged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 25. Whenever any infant under the age of fifteen years shall be committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution under the provisions of this act, the order of commitment shall be signed by the Judge by whom it is made, and authenticated by the Clerk of the proper court under the seal of the court, and such order shall state the name and age of the infant, and the section of this act under which she may be committed, without setting forth or mentioning the offense with which she may have been charged, and no other or further record of the proceedings shall be made unless demanded by the infant, or her parents or guardian. If, however, there shall be a regular trial and conviction under the twenty-first section of this act, the usual record shall be made, and in such cases a certified copy of the judgment shall constitute the order of commitment.

SEC. 26. When a commitment shall be made under either of the specifications of section 19 of this act, the order of commitment shall also specify under which of the clauses or specifications of said section such order is made.

SEC. 27. The Board of Managers of said Institution may provide by general regulations for the discharge of girls committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, under any section or provision of this act, such discharge to be made by the Superintendent and with the approval of the Board.

SEC. 28. Any person who may be committed to or confined in either department of said Institution and who may escape therefrom may be arrested and returned to said Institution by any officer or citizen on the written order or request of the Superintendent or Board of Managers.

SEC. 29. The Superintendent of said Institution shall have power to place any girl committed to the Reformatory Department thereof at any employment for account of the Institution, or otherwise, and cause her to be instructed in such branches of useful knowledge as such Superintendent may think proper, and shall also have power to bind out such infant, with her consent, during her minority, and may execute indentures of apprenticeship for such infant, which shall have the like force and effect as other indentures of apprenticeship made under the laws of this State, but every indenture of apprenticeship so made, before the delivery thereof, shall be approved by the Board of Managers of said Institution, which approval shall be indorsed on the indenture and signed by the President of the Board, and a record of such approval shall be made in the minutes of the business transactions of the Board; and in case any girl so apprenticed shall prove untrustworthy or unreformed, the Superintendent may permit her to be returned to the Institution to be held in the same manner as before any such apprenticeship, whereupon the indenture may be canceled by order of the Board; and if such infant shall have an unsuitable master or mistress, the Superintendent may, with the approval of the Board, take her back into said Institution with or without the consent of such master or mistress, and thereupon the indenture shall be canceled. All indentures so made shall be filed and kept in said Institution, and it shall not be necessary to file or record them in any other office or place, but the master or mistress of any girl so apprenticed shall, on request, be entitled to a copy of her indenture.

SEC. 30. If any girl shall be committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, upon the complaint or at the instance of her parent or guardian, the cost of transporting such girl to the Institution, and the cost of her subsistence and clothing, shall be paid by such parent or guardian, unless such parent is unable, by reason of his or her poverty, to pay the same, or unless such guardian has no funds, effects or estate of such infant, out of which the same could be paid. The order of commitment shall, in every such case, state whether the parent is able to pay the cost of the subsistence and clothing of the infant, or whether the guardian has any estate or effects of the infant out of which such costs can be paid. The Board of Managers shall, in every such case, estimate and fix the amount to be paid, and the same shall be paid by the Superintendent quarterly in advance.

SEC. 31. Said Board of Managers shall, with the approval of the Governor, estimate and determine, as near as may be, the actual expense per annum of clothing and subsisting an infant committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, and include a statement of such estimated price in each annual report, one-half of the cost of keeping, according to such estimates, together with the entire cost of conveying each infant to the Institution, shall be paid by the county from which such infant may be committed, except in cases where the cost of transporting such infant to the Institution, and her subsistence and clothing, is chargeable to her parent or guardian, under the last preceding section.

SEC. 32. The expenses which any county may be liable to pay for the clothing and subsistence of any girl committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, under the provisions of this act shall be paid by the Board of County Commissioners of such county into the State Treasury, on a certified statement in detail of the amount due therefor from such county being transmitted by the Superintendent of the Institution through the Treasurer of State to the Auditor of the proper county.

SEC. 33. And whenever an inmate of the Penal Department, by continuous good conduct, gives evidence of permanent reformation, she may, in like manner, be transferred to the Reformatory Department on probation, and may be continued therein so long as her conduct may, in the opinion of the Board of Mangers and Superintendent, justify it.

SEC. 34. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, the sum of $50,000 is hereby appropriated, to be paid out of the State Treasury upon the warrants of the Governor: Provided, That no building shall be erected under this act, which shall exceed in cost to the State the sum hereby appropriated. * * *

SEC. 35. If a parent, guardian or master of any infant committed to the Reformatory Department of said Institution, or any person occupying the position of parent or guardian in fact, or any relation by blood or marriage not more remote than first cousin to such infant, shall feel aggrieved by the commitment of such infant to said Institution, he may make written application to the Board of Managers of said Institution for the discharge of such infant, which application shall be filed with the Superintendent, who shall inform the Managers thereof, and the same shall be heard and determined by said Managers at such time as they shall appoint for that purpose, not later than the next regular meeting of the Board. Such application shall state the grounds of the applicant's claim to the custody of the infant and the reasons for claiming such custody. Within ten days after the hearing of such application the Board of Managers shall make and announce their decision thereon, and if they shall be of the opinion that the welfare of such infant would be promoted by granting the application, they shall make an order to that effect; otherwise they shall deny the application. The applicant may, upon the denial of the application, by first giving security for the payment of all costs (the security to be approved by the Clerk of the proper court), commence an action in the Circuit Court or Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the Institution may be situated, for the recovery of the custody of such infant against the managers of the Institution, and the complaint in said action shall state the facts and manner of the commitment, and the making of the plaintiff's application to the managers for the custody of such infant, and the denial of such application by said managers, as well as the ground upon which the plaintiff relies for the recovery of the custody of such infant. Said action shall be prosecuted in like manner as other civil actions, and the costs thereof shall be paid by the plaintiff, without reference to the result of the action, unless the court shall state in the judgment that the refusal of the managers to grant the application of the plaintiff was plainly unreasonable, or that the original commitment was manifestly unnecessary and improper.

SEC. 36. Whenever any female under the age of fifteen years shall be sentenced by any court of competent jurisdiction to imprisonment in any county jail, it shall be lawful for the Governor, on the application of such infant, her parent, guardian, or any other person, to commute her punishment by substituting therefor the commitment of such infant to the Reformatory Department of the Institution created by this act, during the minority of such infant, unless sooner lawfully discharged by the Board of Managers or otherwise.

SEC. 37. Said Managers shall be allowed for their services the sum of one hundred and sixty dollars per annum, payable quarterly on the warrant of the Governor, out of the Treasury of the State, and no traveling expenses or other allowances shall be paid to said Managers, or any of them.

SEC. 38. It shall be the duty of said Board of Managers to provide teachers, and as far as practicable instruct the inmates of said Institution in reading, writing and arithmetic.

SEC. 39. It shall be the duty of the Governor from time to time, as he may deem necessary, to appoint a Board of Visitors to visit and inspect said Institution, and examine as to the treatment, employment and condition of its inmates, and the management of its affairs, including the expenditures thereof; and to enable them to do so, the Board of Managers and Superintendent of the Institution shall afford such Board of Visitors all needful facilities to enable them thoroughly to perform their duty, including an inspection of the books, records and accounts of the Institution. Such Board of Visitors shall consist of one man and two women, and at least two visitations shall be made each year, and the result thereof shall be reported to the Governor, but such visitations shall be made without any cost or expense to the State.

SEC. 2. Whenever said Institution or any portion or department thereof is ready to be furnished, the Board of Managers thereof shall present to the Auditor of State an itemized estimate of the articles needed for that purpose, with the estimated cost of each item or article, which estimate or statement shall be verified by the oath of the President of said Board, and upon the presentation of said estimate or statement to the Auditor of State, said Auditor shall, as soon as practicable, notify the Governor, Secretary and Treasurer of State of the filing of such statement, and if the majority of said officers shall be of the opinion that the proposed expenditure or some part thereof is necessary for the proper furnishing of said Institution, or any part or department thereof, they shall direct, in writing, the Auditor of State to draw his warrant for the amount so estimated for, or such part or portion thereof as they may approve, on the Treasurer of State, who shall pay the same to the President of said Board, or to his order, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. As it is almost impossible, without knowing the number of inmates that will be in said Institution, and the number of officers that will be necessary to manage and govern its affairs, the current expenses of said Institution shall be estimated for, allowed, and drawn from the treasury as follows, viz.:

At the commencement of each month the Superintendent of the Institution shall prepare and verify by his oath an estimated itemized statement in writing of the amounts that will be required to meet the current expenses of such Institution during such month, and present the same to the Auditor of State, who shall notify the Governor, Secretary and Treasurer of the State thereof, and if a majority of said officers shall approve and allow said estimate, or a part thereof, they shall direct in writing the Auditor of State to draw his warrant on the Treasurer of State for the amount which may be so allowed by said State officers, or by a majority of them, and said Treasurer shall pay said warrant out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. Every such estimated itemized statement shall set forth the number of inmates in each of the departments of the Institution, and also the number of officers and persons employed therein.

SEC. 4. The Board of Managers and Superintendent of said

Institution shall, at the end of every period of six months, commencing with the first money which may be drawn from the treasury on any estimate made under either of the previous sections of this act, make an itemized report of the expenditure of the money which may have been so drawn from the treasury under this act, and the Auditor shall carefully examine such report, and if in his opinion any money shall have been improperly expended by the purchase of unnecessary articles, or by paying too much therefor, or otherwise, said Auditor shall immediately notify the Governor, Secretary and Treasurer of State, who, in conjunction with such Auditor, shall immediately proceed to investigate the matter, and in accordance with the decision of a majority of these officers the account shall be audited: Provided, however, That before rendering an adverse decision upon any such account, or any part thereof, they shall notify the disbursing officer, and allow him to present such explanations or adduce such testimony as he may desire in regard to the matter, and they shall have the same power to summon and require the attendance of witnesses as are given to the Circuit Courts of this State.

SEC. 5. The Auditor of State shall keep and preserve a full record of all the proceedings of said officers of the State under the foregoing provisions of this act.

SEC. 6. An emergency is hereby declared to exist for the immediate taking effect of this act; therefore, the same shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
